

LOGOS

LOGOS

The Word...

A Poem...

A poem should be palpable and mute
As a globed fruit,

Dumb

As old medallions to the thumb,

Silent as the sleeve-worn stone
Of casement ledges where the moss has grown —

A poem should be wordless
As the flight of birds.

A poem should be motionless in time
As the moon climbs,

Leaving, as the moon releases
Twig by twig the night-entangled trees,

Leaving, as the moon behind the winter
leaves,
Memory by memory the mind . . .

A Poem Should Be Motionless In Time
As The Moon Climbs

A Poem Should Be Equal To:
Not True.

For All The History Of Grief
An Empty Doorway And A Maple Leaf.

For Love

The Leaning Grasses
Lights Above The

And Two
Sea —

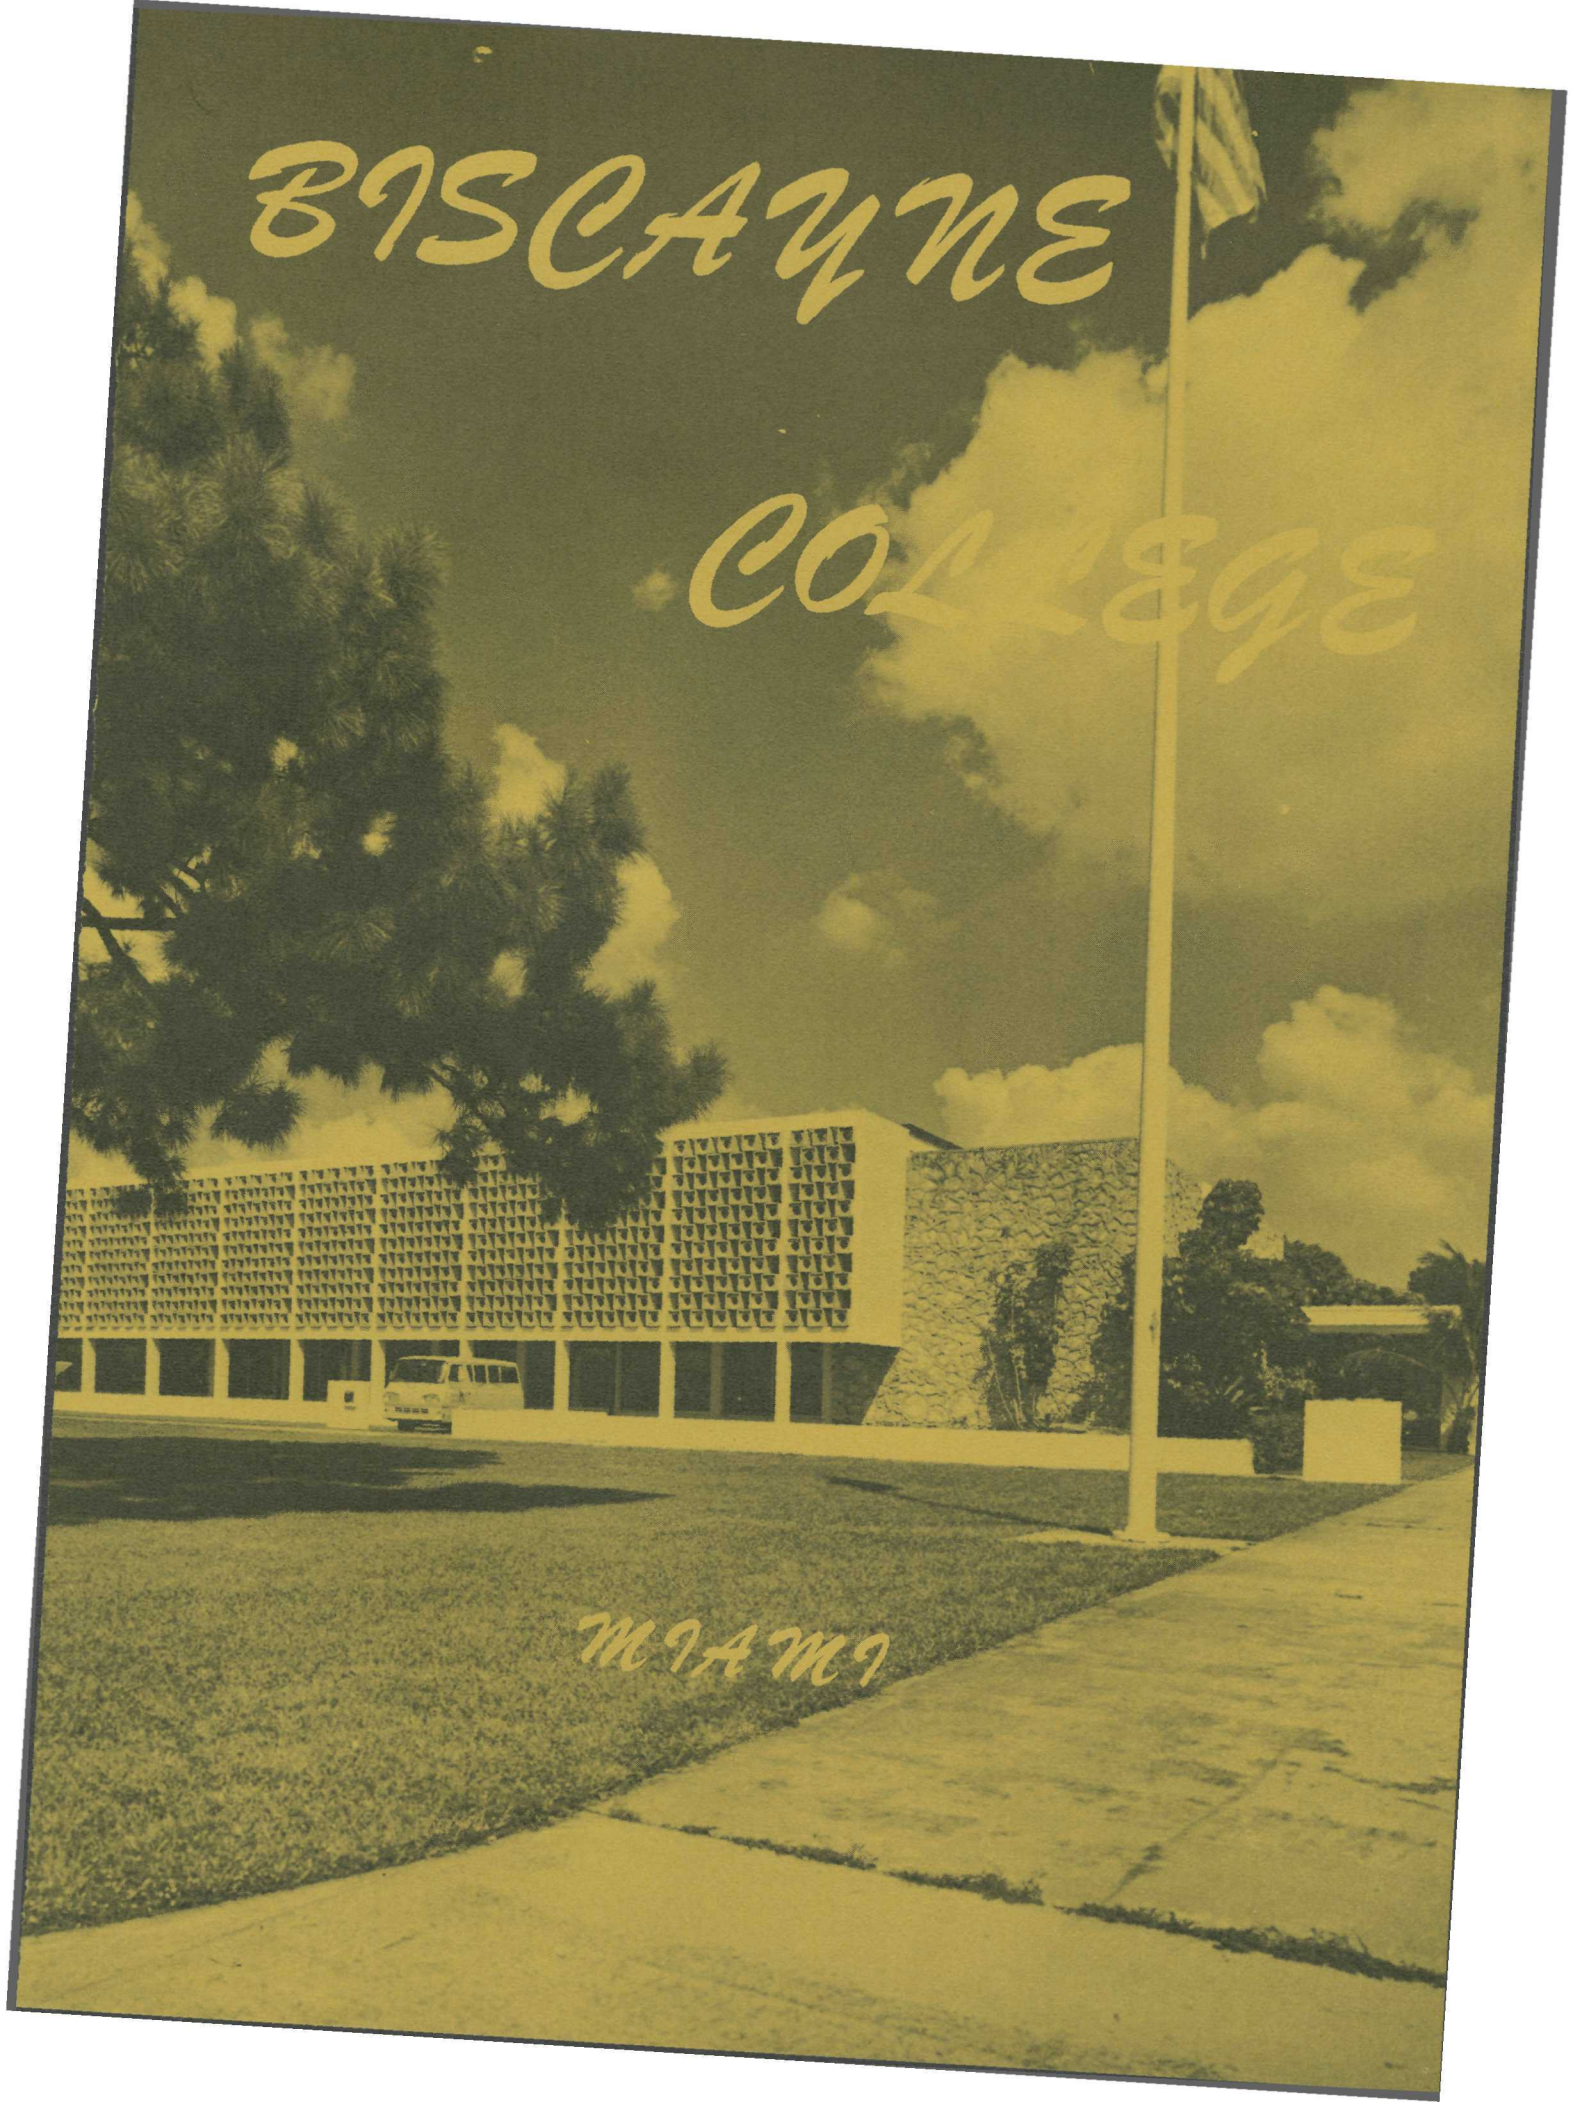

A Poem Should Not Mean
But Be.

Where People Are Drawn Together . . .
Not more Than By Coincidence

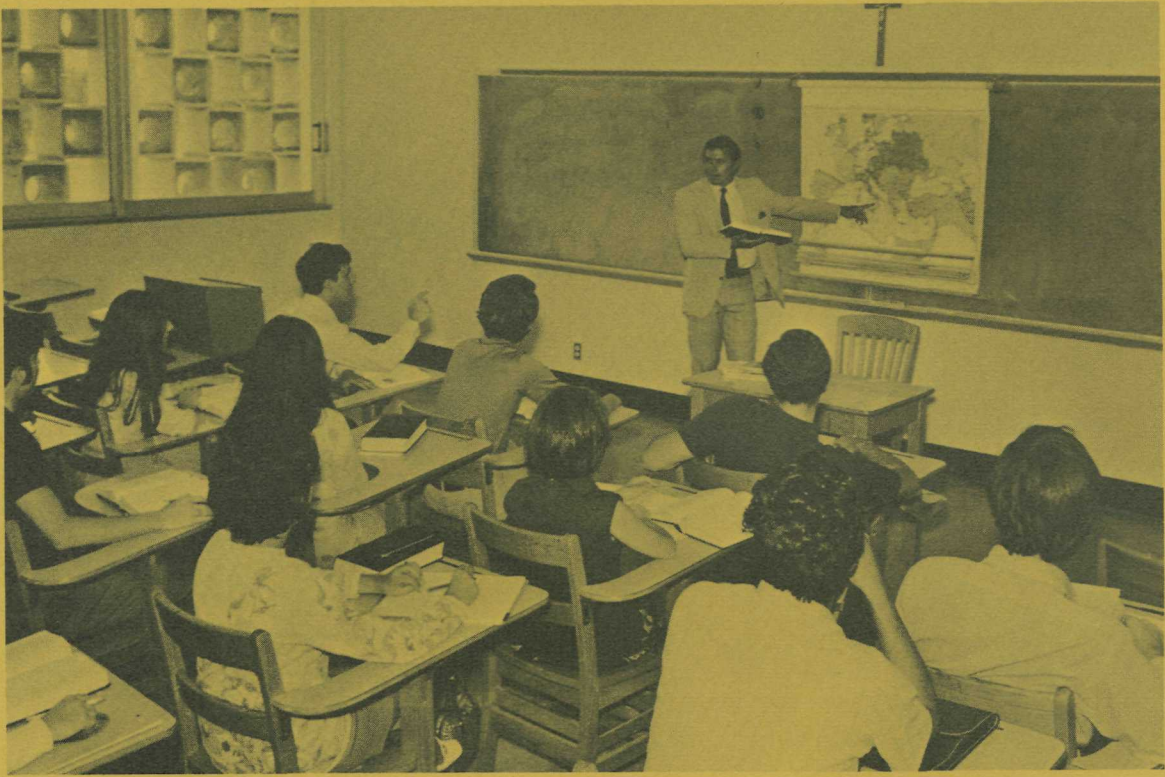

Where Coincidence Ceases To Be Chance
. . . But rather Opportunity

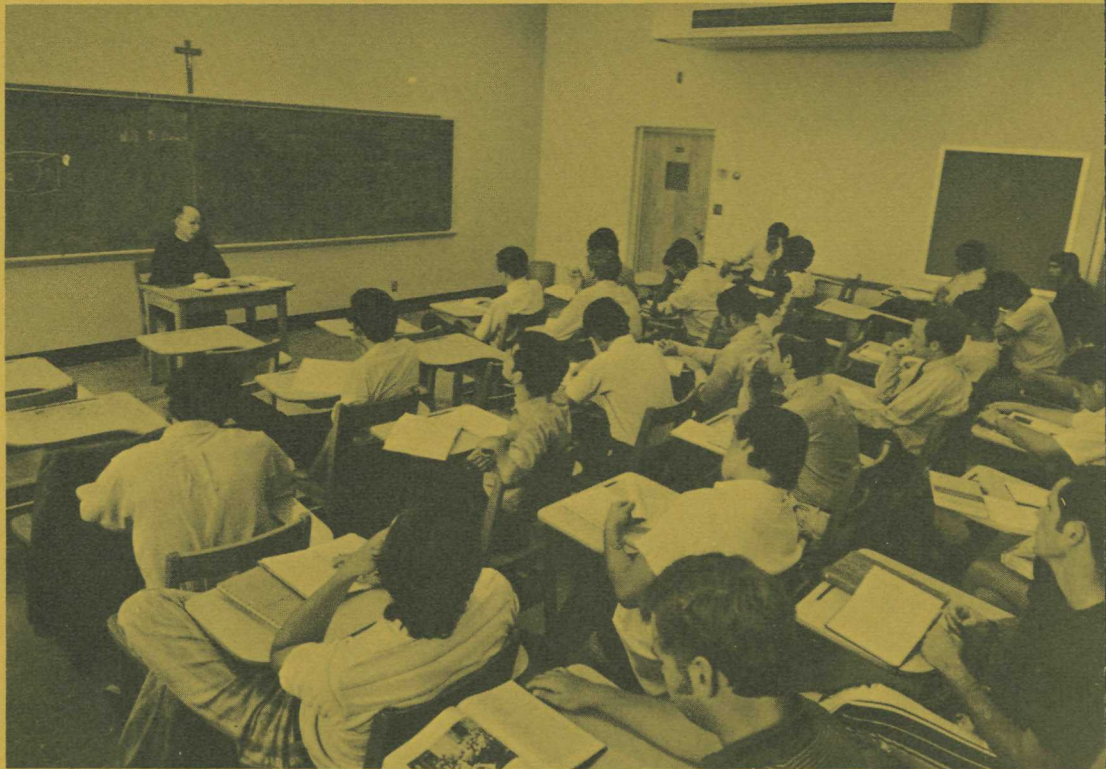

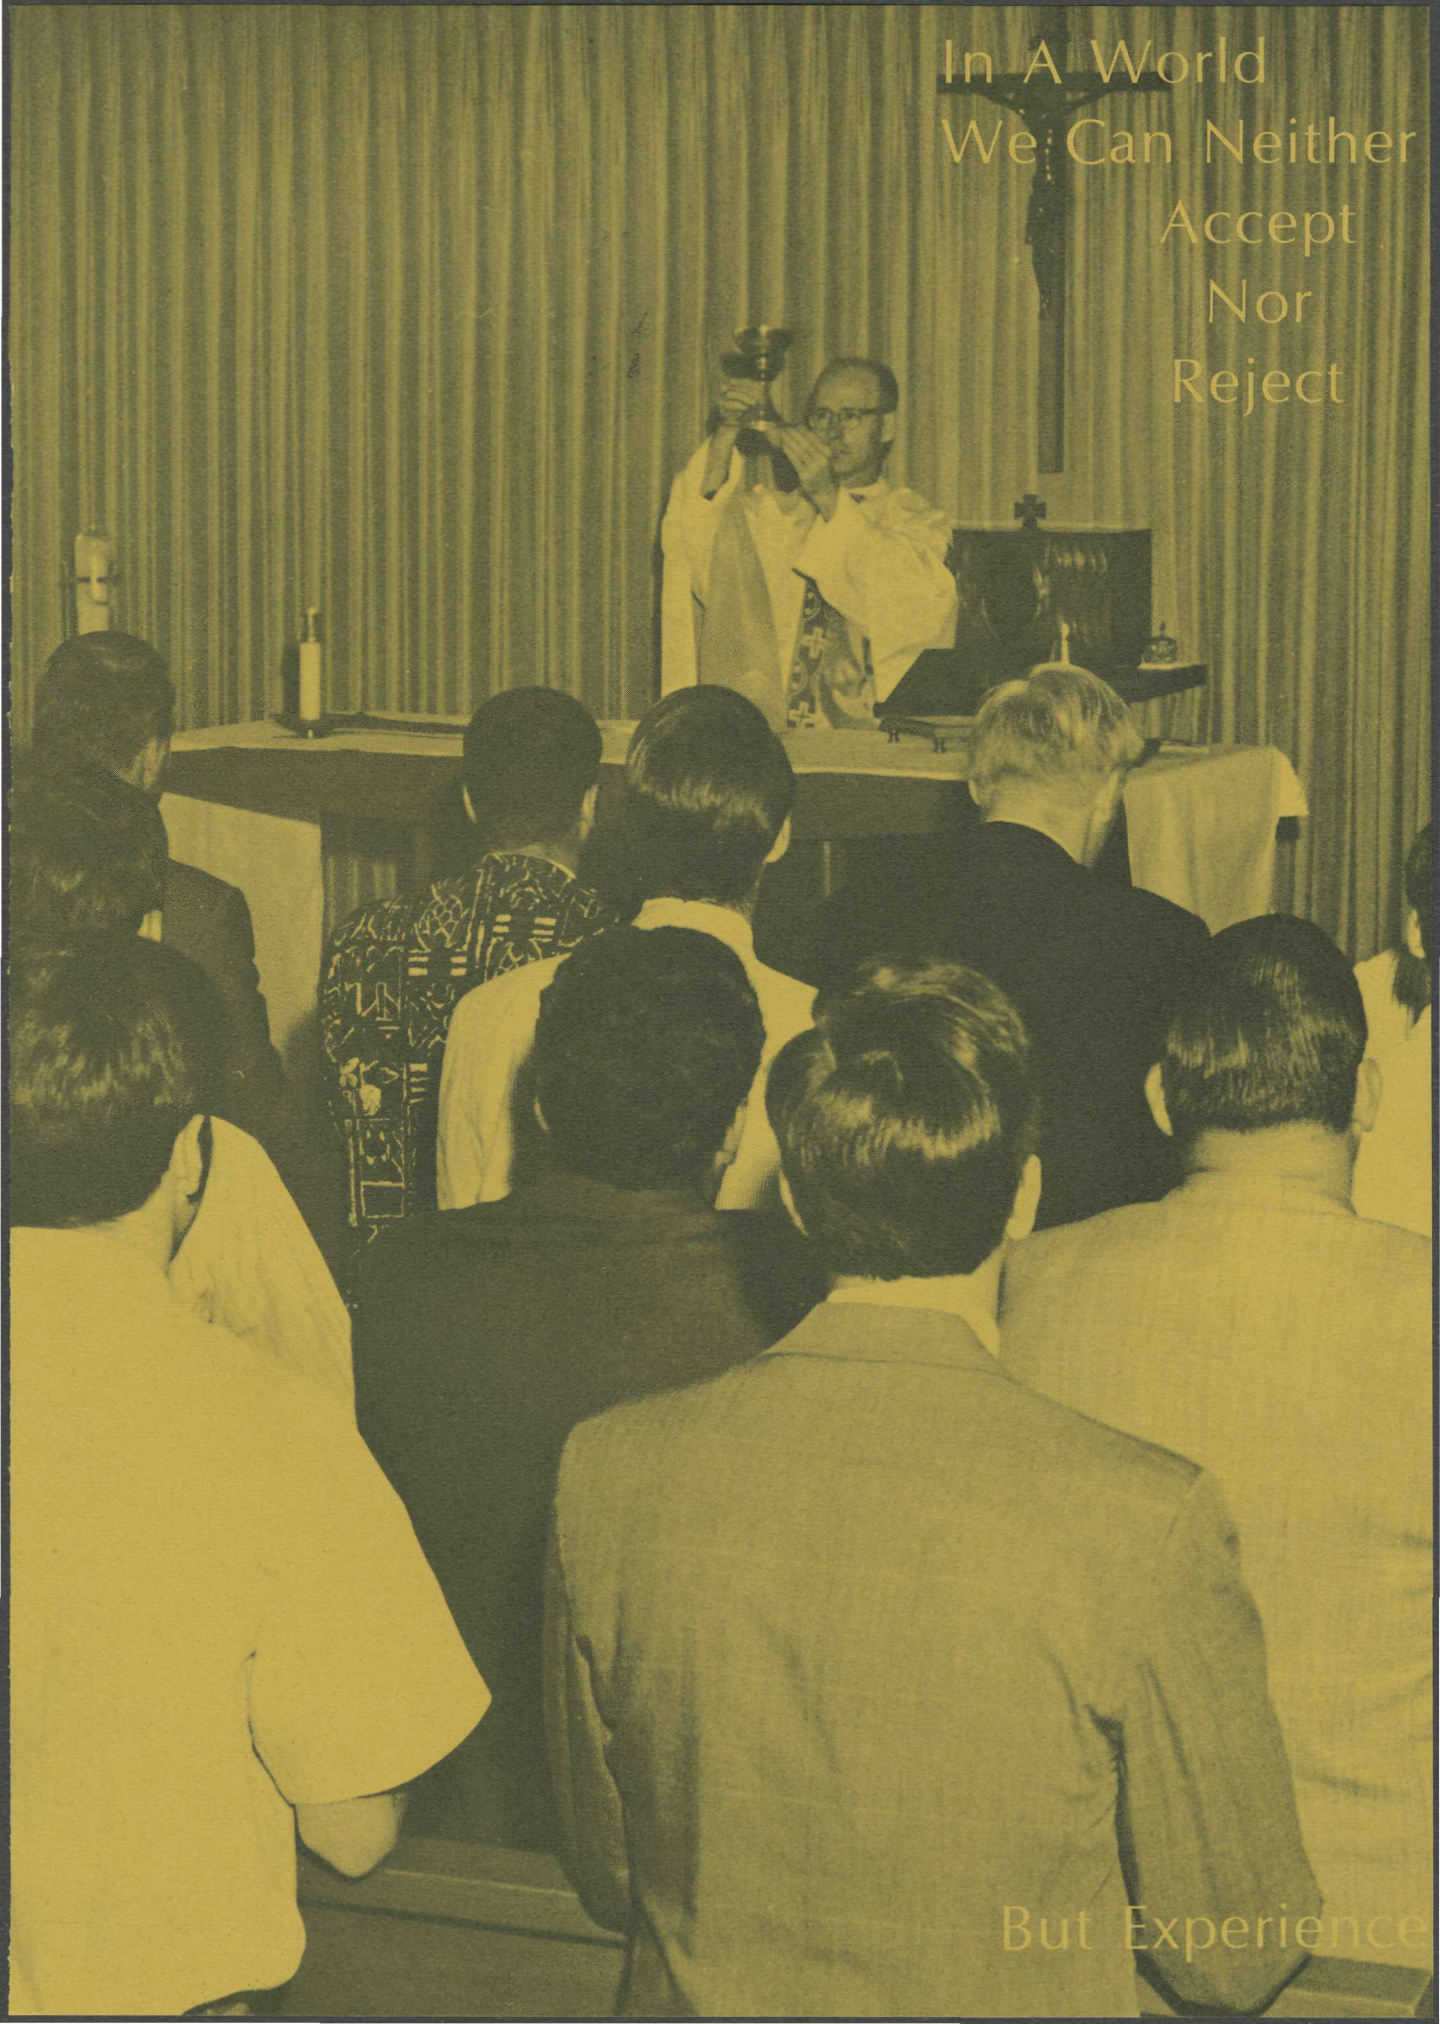

To Gather One's Thoughts
In Times Of Confusion . . .

Or Be Confused
By The Thoughts Of Others

A photograph of a religious ceremony, likely a Mass, viewed from the perspective of the congregation. A priest in white vestments is standing at an altar, holding a chalice. The altar is covered with a white cloth and has a crucifix on the wall behind it. The congregation is seen from behind, with their heads and shoulders visible. The lighting is warm and somewhat dim, creating a solemn atmosphere.

POST SCRIPT

The Editor wishes to THANK Biscayne for the trial to overcome.

John Fanning as Sports Editor and Aid Tom, (Tusky) Toscani for Advertisement Dept.

Rick Murray for juggling the books, Rev Dom Berra, "The Greatest Salesman" Reggie Gash "The Second Greatest" acknowledgement for the many, many fine photographs of Rich Hauseworth.

To the parents and faithful Advertisers (you too Mr. Mandes)

And lastly to all the faculty members, students and friends who did nothing, but create a larger than life challenge to accept.

Ed.

Dedication

The 1970 Logos is not dedicated to a Person, living, lost or dead, but to an ideal: Its labors are offered to those who respect their identity, to those who meet the challenge of life by doing, not undoing.

Send a letter to North Vietnam.

Right now hundreds of Americans are being held captive in North Vietnam.

A few prisoners have made it back. They talk about bamboo cages. Vicious beatings. Malnutrition. Humiliation.

But the North Vietnamese will tell us nothing. And it's this silence that makes our appeal more urgent.

For the families at home, there is no word on who's alive. Who's dead. Or even who's being held. There is nothing. Except the anguish of not knowing.

Maybe you can change this. By writing to the one man who can change it: The President of North Vietnam.

Ask him to release the names of prisoners, allow them to write to their families, and let the Red Cross inspect the prisons to insure proper medical treatment and living conditions.

Remind him that he is bound by the 1949 Geneva Convention which his country signed. And by the Istanbul resolution.

North Vietnamese leaders do care about American public opinion. And if they think they can gain something by bowing to it, they will.

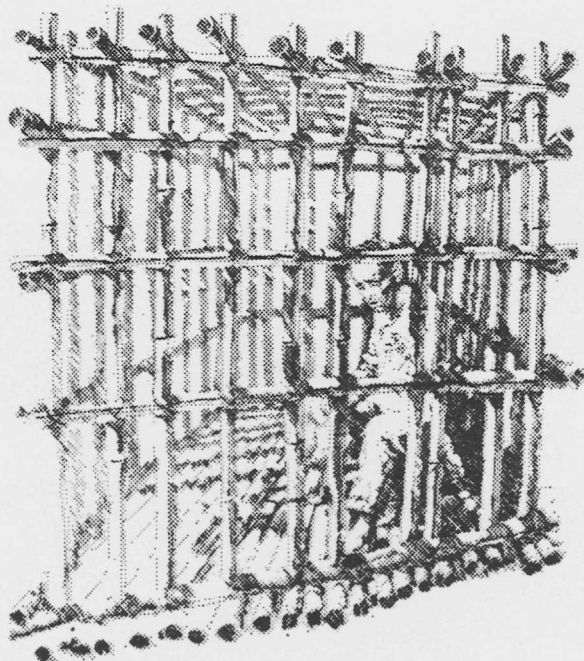

But one letter won't do it. Or a thousand. Maybe it will take millions. So we've got to write now. All of us. And often.

Write a letter tonight. And send it to: Office of the President, Democratic Republic of Vietnam, Hanoi, North Vietnam.

It'll cost you a quarter. But it might save a life.

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS ✚

Maybe they'll open it.

Why not make money where you can enjoy it?

Florida has the ingredients for both. Take income. Did you know that Florida's total personal income will double during the next ten years—a 106 percent increase? That's one of the highest rates of any state in the nation.

Florida is unique. Besides her tropical climate, and booming tourist industry, she's the fastest growing major state in the country. The past five years have brought 3340 new plants and plant expansions to Florida. And no wonder residents come by the thousands every month; Florida has space—an increasingly precious commodity nowadays.

Florida is the site for Walt Disney World, tomorrow's motion picture industry, and the launching pad for Atlas, Gemini, and Apollo.

Florida can also be your launching pad.
