GIVE US GRACE AND STRENGTH TO PERSEVERE.

NO

Give us courage . . .

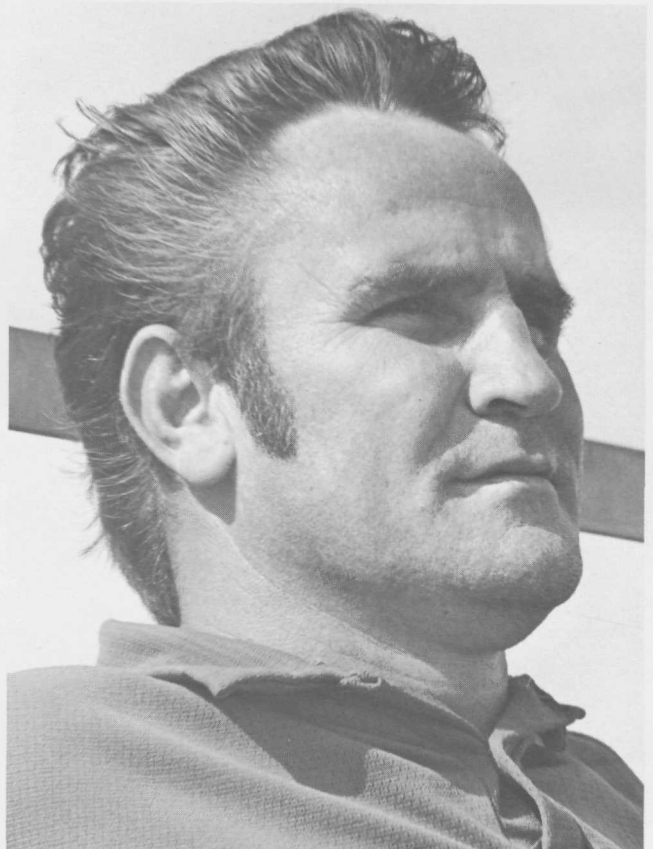

and gaiety . . .

and the quiet mind.

Spare to us our friends . . .

and soften to us our enemies.

Give us the strength to encounter
that which is to come,
that we may be brave in peril,
constant in tribulation,
temperate in wrath and in all
changes of fortune,
and down to the gates of death,
loyal and loving to one another.

IN TRIBUTE TO A MAN WHO FOUND HUMANITY

James J. O'Mailia

Aside from the three months he spent as a political prisoner in Cuba, he has been making a joyful noise unto the Lord in this Age of Anxiety. Buffalo born, descendant of Irish royalty on one side and Irish sheep stealers on the other, he tested out Iceland for a year during the Second World War and found it wanting—and so to Peru, where he embraced his wife and his Spanish. Since then the tropics, defying dictators and dullness, and at last finding a home in Miami, and the classroom: Entrepreneur extraordinaire, he is at heart a teacher—exhibitionist, extortionist, contortionist, a refugee from the Borscht Belt via the Groves of Academe, a happening in Opa-Locka since the founding of Biscayne College in 1962, a daily trip, a purveyor of the buck and wing of tense and Tennyson for baffled Bobcats, a Mr. Bonjangles come to South Florida, a wonderful wizard about the business of showing us all how to put it together.

BASEBALL

There was ease in Casey's manner as he stepped into his place,
 There was pride in Casey's bearing, and
 a smile on Casey's face,
 And when, responding to the cheers, he lightly doffed his hat,
 No stranger in the crowd could doubt
 'twas Casey at the bat.

Oh! somewhere in this favored land the sun is shining bright;
 The band is playing somewhere,
 and somewhere hearts are
 light;
 And somewhere men are laughing and somewhere children
 shout,
 But there is no joy in Mudville—
 mighty Casey has struck out.

IN MEMORY OF

THOMAS DICKEL

1950—1972

A student, a fraternity brother, a friend to all. He found the meaning of life and shared it with those who were searching—but his own was shortened.

We know only too well the meaning of death. We know the sorrow it brings upon us—but, are we forgetting the beautiful memories that we have—and will always have—of a truly beautiful person?
