Dear Readers:

Does this feel like Deja Vu? If it does your right. I've been here before. You might recognize me, I was last year's editor. And you thought they'd let you leave after you graduate.

A question you might ask is Why? Why do it again? My answer could be I didn't get enough of it the first time, or I'm a masochist, or better yet, I love my alma mater. But the real reason is just plain STUPIDITY!!

The yearbook is a monumental task that shouldn't be taken lightly. It is a lot of hard work done by very few people. I was lucky to have wonderful people helping me.

My thanks goes out to Byron Kennedy III for his help with the yearbook publishing. He was there when we didn't know the new way to do layouts. Also, thanks to Dean Zarzycki and Harry Formica, they gladly let me take over the yearbook and kept me to our very tight budget. Let's not forget Rosa Coto, who did whatever she could to help.

My staff may not have been very large this year, but as the saying goes it's not the quantity it's the quality. Our assistant editor's - Anne Marie Sullivan and Jessica Murgueytio - worked many long hours to get out our first deadline. Anne Marie--Suprise, Mc Donalds. Jessica, Don't forget to open your windows. Suzy Alvarez, who is next year's editor, learned everything she needs to know to do a yearbook as well as helped us out. Suzy, you're the best lil sis ever. Brian Babin typed out copy sheets as fast as his two fingers would go. Brian, Your car was What? But we can't forget Brutus, he always wanted to help but biting our ankles and lying on our layouts wasn't much help.

I'd like to wish the sisters of Delta Phi Epsilon the best of luck always, you're on to a great start. Thanks for the Alumni award, it was greatly appreciated. I love you guys.

Well that's about it. I hope you enjoy the 1991 edition of Logos. We tried to make the most of what we had. I think it's a great book, but then again, I'm biased. I promise this is my last time. That's it and I'm outta here.

Sincerely,

Lori Hicks
