ST. THOMAS UNIVERSITY

St. Thomas of Villanova, 1487-1555
TO THE CLASS OF 1992:

Office of the President

WE HAVE BEEN TOGETHER OVER THESE PAST SEVERAL ACADEMIC YEARS AND I HAVE WATCHED YOU CHANGE AND DEVELOP INTELLECTUALLY AND SPIRITUALLY. AS SENIORS YOU HAVE COME TO REPRESENT THE BEST OF ST. THOMAS UNIVERSITY. AS GRADUATES OF THIS OUTSTANDING CATHOLIC INSTITUTION, I BELIEVE YOU SHOULD LEAVE WITH A WELL-DEFINED SET OF ETHICS AND VALUES SIMILAR TO THOSE STATED BY ST. THOMAS AQUINAS WHO REDUCED ALL THE MORAL VIRTUES TO THE FOUR SO-CALLED CARDINAL VIRTUES OF MODERATION, COURAGE, JUSTICE AND PRUDENCE. IF YOU LIVE THE REMAINDER OF YOUR ADULT LIFE WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF THESE ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS, YOU WILL REPRESENT YOURSELF AND THE UNIVERSITY WELL.

WE HAVE GIVEN YOU A SOLID MORAL FOUNDATION, AN ABILITY TO THINK CRITICALLY AND INDEPENDENTLY, AND WE HAVE EMPHASIZED THE NEED FOR YOU TO SERVE THE LESS FORTUNATE THROUGH YOUR FAITH AND COMMITMENT. I PRAY THAT PROFESSIONAL OPPORTUNITIES, A GOOD FAMILY LIFE AND HAPPINESS WILL COME TO EACH OF YOU.

AT THE SAME TIME YOU WERE GROWING AND CHANGING, ST. THOMAS WAS ALSO UNDERGOING SEVERAL MAJOR CHANGES AS A NEW AND RELATIVELY YOUNG UNIVERSITY. IN 1988, THE UNIVERSITY CAME UNDER THE SPONSORSHIP OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF MIAMI. HIS EXCELLENCY, ARCHBISHOP EDWARD MCCARTHY WANTS ME TO CONVEY HIS BEST WISHES AND PRAYERS FOR THIS CLASS. HE HAS A SPECIAL REGARD FOR EACH OF YOU AS A PERSON.

THE UNIVERSITY HAS NOW ENJOYED SEVERAL YEARS OF STABILITY AND PROGRESS AND YOU HAVE AN OPEN INVITATION TO COME BACK TO SEE US GROW AND DEVELOP. THE LAW SCHOOL CONTINUES TO BECOME A VERY IMPORTANT PART OF THIS UNIVERSITY AS WELL AS OUR OUTSTANDING GRADUATE PROGRAMS IN BUSINESS, SPORTS ADMINISTRATION, EDUCATION AND COUNSELING.

THE 1990s ARE GOING TO BE VERY IMPORTANT YEARS FOR BOTH YOU AND ST. THOMAS. AS YOU JOIN THE RANKS OF ALUMNI, YOU BECOME PART OF THE HERITAGE OF SANTO TOMAS - BISCAYNE COLLEGE - ST. THOMAS UNIVERSITY; AND I ASK YOU TO JOIN THE MANY ALUMNI EVERYWHERE TO PRAY FOR AND TAKE PRIDE IN YOUR ALMA MATER.

GOD BLESS YOU IN ALL YOUR FUTURE ENDEAVORS AND MAY THE PEACE AND LOVE OF THIS CAMPUS FAMILY REMAIN WITH YOU.

CONGRATULATIONS, CLASS OF 1992, WE SHALL MISS YOU!

SINCERELY,

Richard E. Greene

CASCIA HALL'S

CULTURAL DINNER

This sangria looks good.

The RA's in Cascia Hall sponsored a Cultural Dinner for their upstairs residents. The program was a success and participation was shown from most of the residents. Everyone cooked a typical dish from their country. This was a way to let everyone share a bit of their culture. All types of foods were tasted, including Mexican nachos, Bahamian peas and rice, homemade Spanish sangria, and even good old American apple pie.

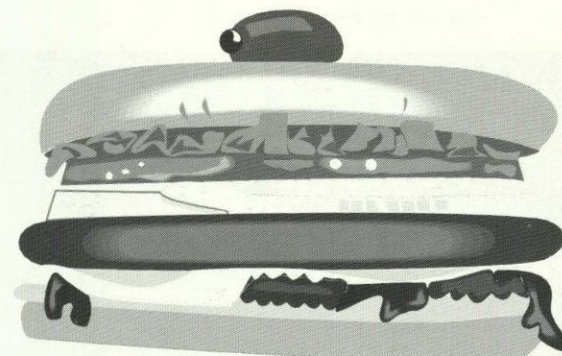

Would you like some?

Did you know?

*More than enough food is grown to feed everyone on this planet.

*Yet more people are going hungry today than ever before. A billion people (20% of the world's population) experience hunger during a year.

*Each day 60,000 people die of hunger (40% are children under the age of five).

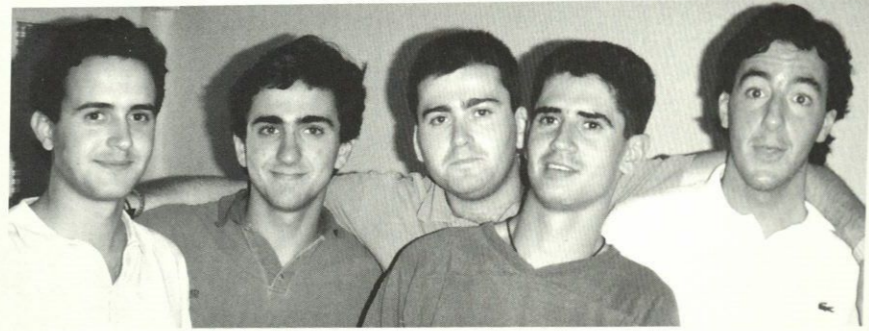

*One-third of the world's children are significantly under weight for their age.

*Four times more malnourished children are female than male.

*Nearly one in five people worldwide is chronically malnourished. . . too hungry to lead an active, productive life.

DELTA PHI EPSILON

Alpha Xi Chapter

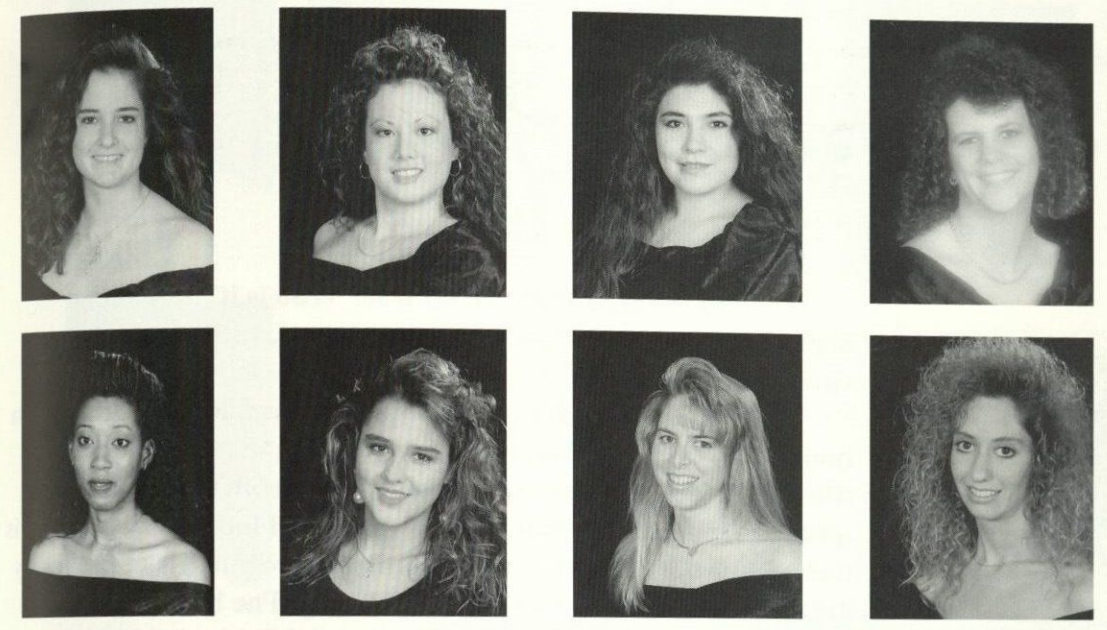

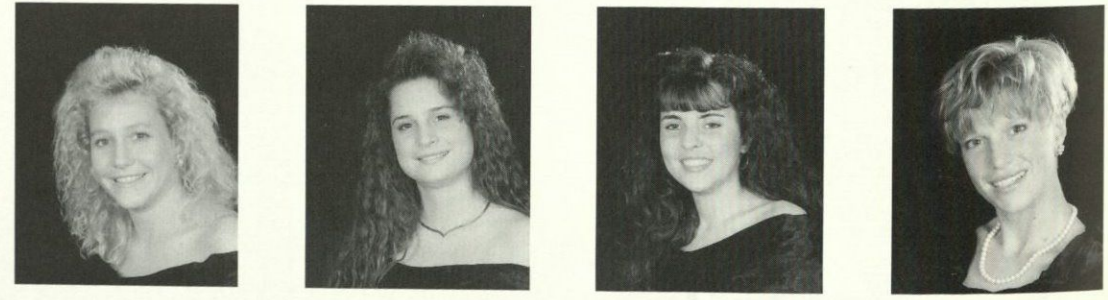

The sisters of the Alpha Xi chapter of Delta Phi Epsilon international sorority at St. Thomas University received their charter on December 14, 1989. The seventeen founding women were all former Tau Epsilon Phi Little Sisters. Since chartering, the chapter has initiated five pledge classes and over forty women into their sisterhood. D Phi E is an organization of women founded on the principles of developing interpersonal bonds of friendship that will continue beyond one's college experiences. Deephers can always be seen on campus having fun, sponsoring Rat parties and pool BBQ's, yet contributing to the campus and surrounding communities through many of their service projects.

TAU EPSILON PHI

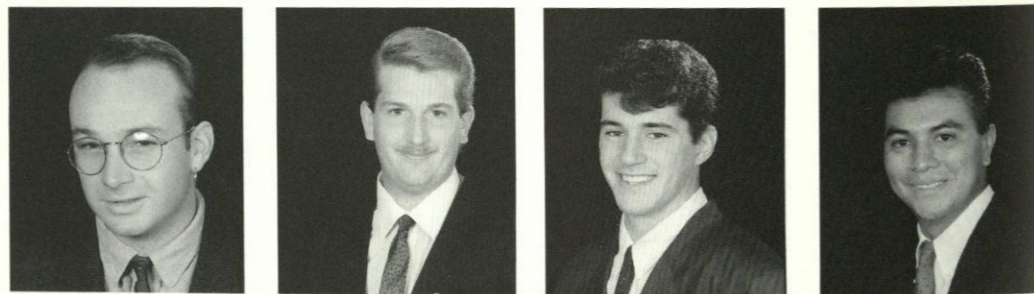

Tau Epsilon Phi: What is it? Who is it? It is not an organization that speaks and is not heard, rather a spokesperson for many.

Tau Epsilon Phi is a group of individuals, outstanding in many ways. This comes from its founding fathers and down to the last brother of the year. TEP is not a club that requires quantity rather one that seeks quality and individualism. TEP is not a biased, racist organization that segregates its members by creed, race, handicap or financial being. The brothers of Tau Epsilon Phi are not a group of beer drinking, noise making, problem causing guys hiding behind greek letters.

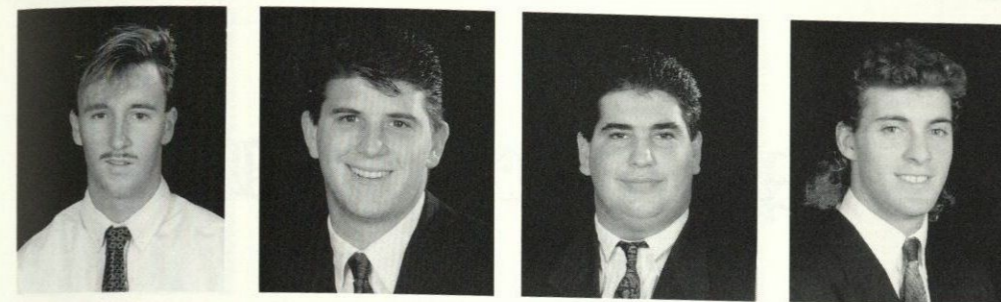

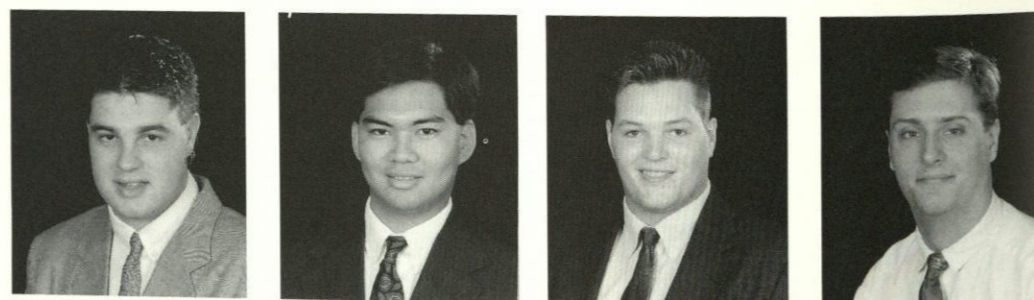

On October 31, 1986, a bridge began to build involving blood, sweat, tears and good old fashion elbow grease. TEP started out as a fraternity that needed direction and leadership. Now, through the dedication of a strong brotherhood, TEP is a non-stop force.

Tau Epsilon Phi is an eternal brotherhood that has been, is now and always be a force to reckon with.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

155-01

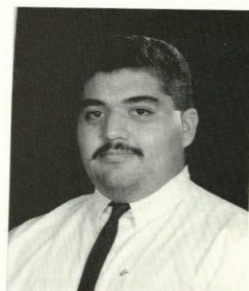

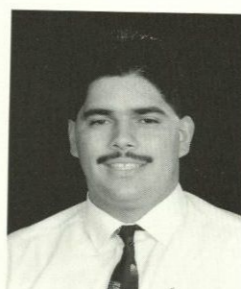

"To aid college men in mental, moral, and social development" is the vowed purpose of the newest fraternity in St. Thomas University.

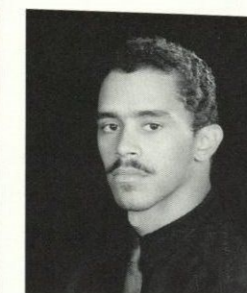

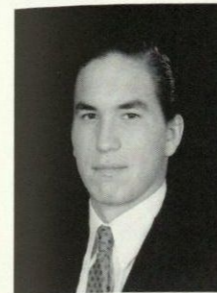

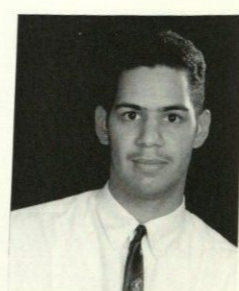

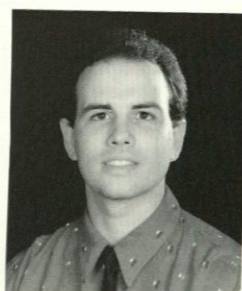

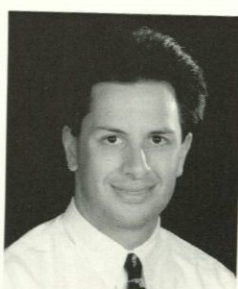

Tau kappa Epsilon International Fraternity was established in 1899, with standards and purposes set within their slogan, "Not for wealth, rank, or honor but for personal worth and character". Since then, the principles of TKE, along with the dedication and hard work of its members have propelled it into being the largest social fraternity in the United States and Canada, with over 300 chapters, 49 established colonies, and over 200,000 members.

Since the colony of St. Thomas University was established on November 22, 1991, a lot of doubt was in the air concerning the time this fraternity would last and the strength of its members. Since the founding date of this chapter, TKE of St. Thomas has initiated 29 men into its brotherhood. The presence has been felt throughout the campus, and the overall impact has been nothing short of outstanding.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ORGANIZATION

Located at the heart of a melting pot society, St. Thomas attracts many people with diverse origins. Therefore, it is the goal of the International Student Organization to promote intercultural sharing, not only of "foreign" students but for all members of the S.T.U. family.

Emphasizing unity and comraderie within the society, we attempt to give the students a forum in which they can express their concerns and share their culture for the benefit of all. Through activities and other projects we wish to achieve this goal and have the International Student Organization recognized as a significant and valuable force on campus.

This progress is done by providing academic and career resources, promoting unity, awareness, responsibility and social interaction by orientation and cultural expression.

THE INFORMER

Ingrid Suarez, Cara Longo, Kim Hurschman, Kelli Lloyd, Monica Morales, Jennifer Leubrs, Carolyn Guinness, Sharon Brehm, Vivian Guzman, Editor-in-Chief- Margaret Sherman.

St. Thomas University has always had a student newspaper. In the Biscayne College years, it was known as the Bobcat and the 'Cayne and The Mission. In it the school community read student-authored articles on campus activities, new personnel, sports, and opinions about virtually everything. The paper kept everyone informed.

At about the time that BC became STU, the paper took on the name the Panorama, suggesting broader university perspective. Issues grew in length, advertisers hyped their goods, and future journalists learned their craft.

In the fall of 1986, during budgetary cutbacks, a group of resident students began producing a photocopied newsletter (some said scandal sheet) called The Informer. And for the next year and a half St. Thomas had two papers.

They complemented each other well, The Panorama coming out monthly, and the Informer as Logos and a record fifteen issues over the course of the year.

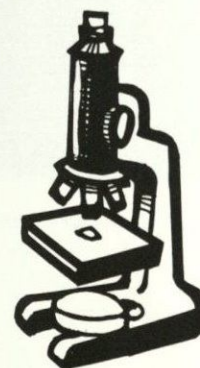

The Informer is of unquestionable importance to student life as a source of news and information. The Informer invites all creative and intelligent students to join the staff. The experience of working on a student publication has been proven to be invaluable.

SCIENCE FICTION FANTASY

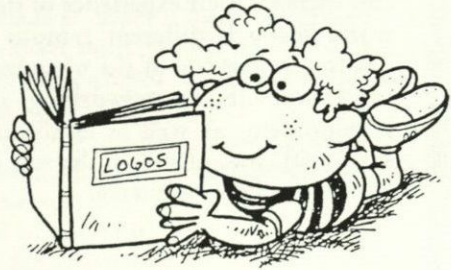

We all share this dream. . .

-We aim for a better world, we hope for peace on earth, we strive for humanity's destiny to jump past the danger of a world of ash and death. Our fantasies, which include millions of writers, readers, and watchers, span the heavens on an endless quest. We may be simple dreamers but our dream will always live on. And with this endless life is the strength which will, if only in our dreams, bring forth an irresistible longing for humanity to see itself as the serpent in the garden of Earth. We all belong in a Sci-Fi/Fantasy Club, We all Dream.

Taking on the editorship of this yearbook was a spontaneous move for me. It goes to show the unpredictability of life and reminded me of some ironic words sung by Vanessa Williams, "Sometimes the snow comes down in June, sometimes the sun goes 'round the moon."

The responsibility of the infamous 1992 Logos Yearbook was a challenge that I, like the many past editors, sought out and worked hard to fulfill. Managing to put together this book-- full of unforgettable college memories-- along with my classes, my job, the sorority, Best Buddies, my R.A. duties and a bit of a social life seemed like a never-ending juggle. Many a times I thought my stress was weakening my sanity. I found myself thinking back to Dr. James O'Malia's famous words which I read in one of my favorite books, Abraham's Pub, "...the only thing you have to do is die."

I learned to take things in stride instead of living religiously by an appointment book and letting life pass me by. The help that God gave me (thank you, God) and the help of a few special people enabled me to deal with the stress, sustain my sanity and obtain the strength to continue juggling.

I would like to thank my staff for all their help and for coming through for me at my desperate moments. Alex Godinez, my Assistant Editor, thanks for always finishing the final lay-outs on such short notice. Michele McCaul and Margie Amador, thanks for walking the extra mile when I needed help the most. Also, thanks for listening to all my complaints day in and day out. Maggie Arango, I really do appreciate all your help. You tried your best, it was not your fault that your pictures never came out. My sister Edilia Romeu, thanks so much for your help in organizing my functions and seeing me through my moments of hysteria. You always seem to be there for me with the right things to say. I guess that is what sisters are for. Dave Fambrini, I can't thank you enough for everything you've done for me. All the running around you did at the last minute to gather pictures and information, and especially, staying up with me at the office helping me type and lay-out until 2:00 a.m., 3:00 a.m. and even 7:00 a.m. left me flabbergasted. Most of all, thanks for your encouraging words and confidence in me (Yes, helping me with the yearbook did impress me but that wasn't how you captured my heart).

Aside from my staff, there are also a few people I owe many thanks to. My Mom and Dad for believing in me and supporting me in all my endeavors. Dad, making you proud of me has always been my main mission. My best friend Rosemary Sierra, thanks for insisting that I take time out for our heart to heart talks; they sure came in handy this year. It is so good to know there is someone who is always happy for me when I'm on cloud nine. Lori Hicks, thanks for all your words of experience and advice. Now I see why you and Rosy put all your hearts and souls into your past issues of Logos. Byron Kennedy

III, who practically taught me all there is to know to put together a yearbook. (Thanks Byron, for being so patient). Anne Marie Sullivan and Lauren Blush, thanks for lending me your helping hands when I was at my moments of desperation.

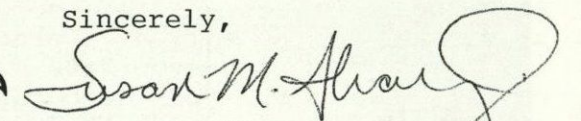

Michael Balfanz, thanks for staying with me at the office that one night while I layed out pages until 3:00 a.m. I needed the company of a friendly face. Mary Ann Nolet, thanks for all the pop-corn. I wouldn't have made it through those long hours without it.

On a special note I would like to thank a few other special people who inspired me during this mind-boggling juggle. Father Jim Gaughan, you always have a way of putting a smile on my face, thanks. (No one gives hugs like you do). I always say, "a hug a day keeps depression away." Sharon and Monica, thanks for always hanging around to remind me how great it is to be in college. Professor Richard Raleigh, thanks for being my inspiration. (I love you and Spain). Gaby, thanks for understanding my hectic schedule and loving me anyway. (You are a good St. Thomas prospect). Mindy, I know I never go visit, but this is what I have to show for. (I still love you). Tracey, I'll make it to your wedding even if it's the last thing I do. Toni, I'm counting the days for your arrival. You're going to love St. Thomas. Janice, Thanks for being my "Best Buddy." I'm glad God brought us together.

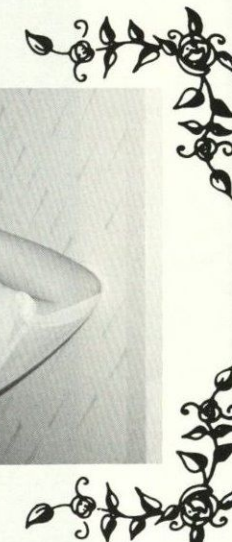

As I juggle my last deadline, lay-out the last picture and type up the last caption, I visualize the 144 pages all coming together to form the 1992 Logos Yearbook. Now I anxiously await for the last copy to be printed and it is like Mr. Raleigh would put it, "a light from a distant star."

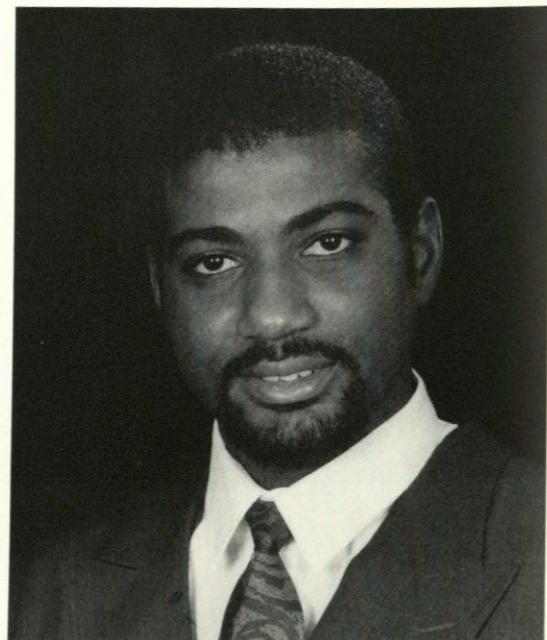

The juggling has ended, yet, I find myself wondering when will be the next time the snow will come down in June or the sun go 'round the moon.

Sincerely,

Susan M. Alvarez

CONGRATULATIONS! GREG!

Today's celebration is surely the fruit of your stubbornness, your constancy to achieve this important outcome. This day, however, should not be considered as an end, but as the beginning of more work to fulfill a triple commitment:

- A commitment towards mankind
- A commitment towards your country;
- A commitment towards yourself.

May God continue to guide you and assist you to make always the right choice in this world where bad temptations are so numerous and various.

Congratulations, again!
Your Mother and your Father are proud of you.

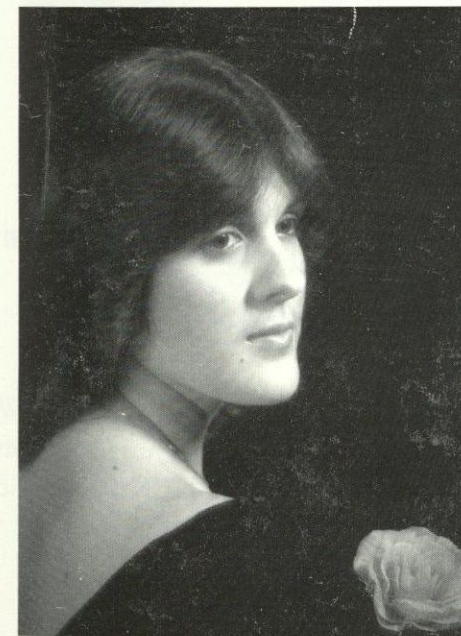

CONGRATULATIONS
