New Construction In Diocese Exceeds $10 Millions In 1964

New construction in the Diocese of Miami rocketed beyond the $10 million mark during 1964.

This is revealed in a year-end report prepared for Bishop Coleman F. Carroll by Father Rene H. Gracida, secretary of the building commission, as the Diocese rounded out the sixth year of its existence.

Included in the building completed are eight new churches, additions to six schools, a residence for working girls, a retirement residence for aged, two college dormitories and a fine arts center.

Outstanding among the projects now under construction is the remodeling of the existing building and the addition of a new five-story wing at Mercy Hospital.

Also being built are two churches, a seminary chapel, a school building at the Marian Center for Exceptional Children, two high school additions and another high school.

OTHERS TO BE ANNOUNCED

Not included are projects already in the advanced planning stage. Soon to be announced also are new undertakings being planned in connection with the Diocesan Development Fund Campaign for 1965.

The 1964 report includes strictly diocesan projects, financed largely by proceeds from Development Fund drives of previous years; construction financed by individual parishes and missions and building in the Diocese by non-diocesan groups and institutions.

Parishes where new churches were blessed during the year are Immaculate Conception, Hialeah; St. Leo, Bonita Springs; St. Vincent de Paul, Miami; St. Raphael, Lehigh Acres; St. Thomas the Apostle, Miami; St.

PEOPLE HAD NO TURKEY BUT PLENTY OF GLOOM

Cuba's Saddest Christmas

By MANOLO REYES
Spanish Associate Editor

How was Christmas in Cuba? Information reaching Miami's exile colony revealed that it was the saddest in history.

The children are undergoing an intensive indoctrination in atheistic communism estranging them from any religious ideas. They do not have a Christmas.

Cuba is living under limitless terror, with a tremendous scarcity of the most necessary articles and food.

Christmas, 1964, for the first time the Cuban people had no chicken, turkey, or guinea chicken for the traditional celebration dinner. In December, 1963, they had only some frozen chicken from Bulgaria, many of them spoiled.

The traditional roast pork did not appear on the tables of Cuban homes because the communist regime prohibited the slaughtering of pigs due to their scarcity.

On Nativity day, long lines of Cubans waited for hours to get a small piece Spanish "turron", a candy nougat.

Nevertheless, the leaders of

Feast Of Epiphany Is Observed On Jan. 6
CHRIST'S DIVINITY MANIFESTED

Feast Of Epiphany Will Be Observed On Wednesday

The Feast of Epiphany, commemorating the manifestation of Christ as our Divine Savior, will be observed on Wednesday, Jan. 6.

Taking its name from the Greek word, epiphania, which denotes the visit of a god to earth, Epiphany united three events in the life of Christ when His divinity was manifested; the adoration of the Magi; the baptism of Christ in the Jordan and the first miracle at the wedding feast of Cana.

Epiphany also commemorates the extension of Christ's kingdom to the entire world. The adoration of the Magi, which forms the main object to the Epiphany celebration in the Latin Church, is symbolic in His Revelation to the whole of the Gentile world.

In Epiphany parish, South Miami, the feast will be celebrated on Monday, Jan. 4 at 8 p.m. when parishioners will sing Christmas Carols at the outdoor creche and attend a special program of tableaux presented by the school children in the parish hall.

Known in Spanish as "El dia de los Reyes," the feast of Epiphany is traditionally a time when Spanish-speaking families exchange gifts in remembrance of the Adoration of the Magi at the Crib in Bethlehem.

In many homes, small children place their shoes on a window sill or doorstep, believing that The Kings will come and fill them with toys and candies.

Castro Influence Declared Waning

MADRID (NC) — Castroist influence among young people in Latin America has declined the past two years, Luis Garcia Arias, professor of international law at the University of Saragossa, said here on his return from a tour of Latin America.

'Reduce Arms To Aid Poor'

VATICAN CITY (NC) — Pope Paul's 1964 Christmas message shows increasing crystalization of a new idea the Pope has to help mankind: reduce armaments and use the funds saved for worldwide social uplift.

The message details more thoroughly a thought expressed in embryo in the 1963 Christmas message and developed further in his special message to the world given to newsmen during his early December visit to Bombay, India.

In his Christmas message last year, Pope Paul dealt with the tragedies that afflict millions of humans through no fault of their own.

Of the world's problems, he said last year, "the first is hunger . . . and unless this heart-rending situation is relieved by opportune remedies, we must foresee that it will grow worse, not better."

This concern, reinforced by the Pope's personal exposure to the deep poverty he witnessed in India, is emphasized anew in his Christmas message.

The Pontiff then listed the arms race as a principal factor in the world's turmoil although he did not give the emphasis to militarism he assigned to it later.

The link Pope Paul saw between the arms race and suffering emerged more clearly in the dramatic statement he gave newsmen on the final evening of his visit to Bombay Dec. 4.

The Pontiff, who had spent considerable time in his strenuous four-day visit seeing and talking to the poor, startled newsmen with this moving statement at what was supposed to be a social press reception:

Militarism, he said, is leading to stockpiles of weapons that not only threaten peace, but deprive nations of enormous amounts of money and manpower.

URGES DISARMAMENT

"We have no hesitation in expressing our hopes that the rulers of nations will find a way to promote — prudently and magnanimously — the process of disarmament," he said.

"We would like to see a generous - minded investigation of how — at least in part and by stages — military expenditure could be diverted to humanitarian ends; and this, not only to the advantage of the particular countries concerned, but also of others in course of development or in a state of need.

"Hunger and misery, sickness and ignorance still cry out for remedy.

"In this age of plenty and of brotherhood, we do not hesitate to make our own once more the pleas of the innumerable poor and suffering today, in need of genuine and substantial relief.

"You, good and generous men who are in a position to help the hungry and the suffering, those in misery and in a state of abandonment, hear in our voice the divine and human voice of Christ, our brother in every human need."

POPE PAUL VI stands at the window of his Vatican apartment and gives his blessings to 15,000 in St. Peter's Square.

Pope Greet Curia; Says 4th Council Session To Be Last

VATICAN CITY (NC) — Pope Paul VI urged officials of the Roman curia to "generous perseverance, continuous striving toward perfection and wise efforts to give ideal and spiritual value" to their tasks.

In his Christmas Eve audience to cardinals living in Rome and to officials of the curia, the Pope expressed "thanks for the work which each accomplishes for the Holy See."

The curia is the collective term for all offices, congregations and commissions which assist the Pope in Rome to carry out his mission of guiding and serving the universal Church.

In addition to exchanging seasonal greetings and thanking all for their assistance, the Pope disclosed that the fourth council session would be the last. However he set no date for its opening.

Speaking especially to the curia, the Pope said:

"May we be allowed to encourage all of your venerable brothers and beloved sons to generous perseverance, continuous striving toward perfection, wise efforts to give ideal and spiritual value to your respective tasks so that this Roman curia of ours may appear more and more the indispensable instrument, the well-ordered unit, the exemplary circle about the chair of St. Peter in its pastoral office for the good of the Holy Church."

No reference was made in the speech by the Pope to the expected reform of the Roman curia which has been under consideration by a special commission for more than a year. However, it was understood from various informed sources that the announcement of the plans for reform may be expected within the first months of 1965.

Elsewhere, in his discourse to the assembled prelates of Rome, Pope Paul declared he was not "displeased" that the council did not achieve its results without "long, diverse and difficult discussions." He said this indicated the "liberty of opinion and of speech which was permitted ever since the start of the Fathers, and it is a sign of the lively interest they took in various matters submitted to their study."

Prelate Predicts Papal Visit To U.S.

NEW ORLEANS (NC) — Archbishop John P. Cody of New Orleans expressed belief here that Pope Paul VI will visit the United States some day — but added that some day may be several years away.

He told newsmen since the Pope knows the people of the United States and the people know him, a papal visit to the U.S. "may be delayed several years."

POPE PAUL VI shakes hands with a little girl and families going to Africa for missionary and medical work during special audience for missionary priests.

SPLendor AND SQUALOR ON CHRISTMAS DAY

Pope Visits Poor Invalids

VATICAN CITY (NC) — The backdrop for Pope Paul VI's second Christmas as head of the Church varied from the splendor of the Sistine Chapel to a tiny room in a working-class suburb of Rome.

A drizzling rain was also a part of the observance, forcing a scheduled outdoor Mass in St. Peter's square to be celebrated inside the basilica and cutting attendance for the Christmas blessing from the usual hundreds of thousands to less than 20,000.

The Pope celebrated his first Mass of the day at midnight for the diplomats accredited to the Holy See and their families in the hushed splendor of the Sistine Chapel at an altar facing Michelangelo's masterpiece, "The Last Judgment."

At 8 a.m. he arrived at the working - class parish of St. Raphael the Archangel in the Trullo district of Rome. He was greeted by damp crowds and slightly soggy bunting and carpets which had been used to ornament balconies overlooking the street in front of the church.

The Pope told his listeners that they must heed the voice of heaven when it tells them of their Faith and then they must put it into practice, and particularly they must practice their Faith so that they can trust in Christ to help them.

The poor were the first to come into contact with Christ, he said, and thus it is you yourselves whom Christ first calls, he explained.

The Pope distributed Holy Communion to the parish's children and its youth groups and at the end of Mass he presented the church with the chalice and chasuble he had used. He also gave an unspecified amount of money to help the poor and left many packs of gifts. In return the Pope was given flowers, a lamb, two doves and an album of pictures prepared by the school children.

Before he left the area the Pope was driven in an open car, despite the rain, to visit two bedridden persons. First he talked with 26-year-old Loreta Del Vecchio, who has been paralyzed for 17 years. The girl was visibly moved.

Through her tears she managed to say "This Christmas, Your Holiness, is the most beautiful day of my life." He spoke words of comfort and presented her with a statue of the Christ Child and a personal gift of money.

At a second visit nearby, the Pope talked with 62-year-old Alcide Sereni, a former employe of the Vatican's printing facility, the Polyglot Press. He had lost the use of his legs 12 years ago after an auto accident.

At 11 a.m. the Pope celebrated a low Mass in St. Peter's after being carried there on his portable throne. After the Gospel he spoke briefly, urging the more than 10,000 people attending to make their Christmas truly good by "giving it its authentic spiritual value and recognizing its deep human meaning."

Ambrose, Deerfield Beach, with church and school; St. Michael the Archangel, Miami, with church and rectory.

Now under construction are St. Louis Church, Kendall; a mission church at Port St. Lucie, and St. Bartholomew Church and school, Hollywood. Renovation at St. Mary Cathedral also is under way.

"The miracle of St. John Vianney" continues to expand with construction of the beautiful chapel building at the St. John Vianney Minor Seminary, South Miami, where young men begin their studies for the diocesan priesthood.

The Villa Madonna Residence for Working Girls, Miami, and the Pennsylvania Hotel, retirement residence for aged, West Palm Beach, were blessed early in 1964.

Additions to three high schools were completed: At Cardinal Gibbons, Fort Lauderdale; Immaculata-LaSalle Academy, Miami, and Monsignor Pace, Opa-locka.

Lourdes Academy, Miami, under construction, will become the latest addition to the chain of high schools in the Diocese. An addition is nearing completion at Central Catholic High, Fort Pierce.

Faculty residences are being built at Cardinal Gibbons, Fort Lauderdale, and Christopher Columbus High, Miami.

New dormitories were completed at Marymount College, Boca Raton, and at Biscayne College, Miami.

Cuba's Saddest Christmas; No Turkey, Plenty of Gloom

the communist regime did not suffer a shortage of food, and the best wines and food were reserved for them and for the so-called "technicians" from the communist countries that are living in Cuba.

There was also rationing of toys, the government allowing only one toy per family, and these of very low quality but sold for a very high price.

There were few Christmas trees as a sign of the sadness of the people. The principle cities, especially Havana, looked dark and grief-stricken. At 9 p.m. everything was deserted.

Some assisted at the religious services inside the few churches that remained open.

Saplings To Christians

JERUSALEM, Israel (NC) — During Christmastide the Jewish National Fund has distributed saplings for planting to all Christian institutions in Israel.

However, from Miami radio stations transmitted the midnight Mass on Christmas Eve and thousands of Cubans in the martyr island were able to listen in their homes to the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice.

A dramatic phrase in a letter says: "No matter how much you hear, you could not really imagine how terrible it was."

That was Christmas in Cuba under communist regime in 1964.

Season's Greetings Extended By Rabbi

Best wishes for the Christmas and New Year season have been extended to Bishop Coleman F. Carroll and the faithful in the Diocese of Miami by Rabbi Joseph R. Narot of Temple Israel.

In a letter to His Excellency, Dr. Narot said: "You must know what a force for good you have been and are in our community, and I want you to know that I cherish our friendship."

Pope's Holy Land Pilgrimage Rated No. 1 Catholic Story

By JOHN J. DALY, JR.

WASHINGTON (NC) — The precedent-shattering pilgrimage of Pope Paul VI to the Holy Land was the major story of 1964 for U.S. and Canadian Catholic newspapers, a poll of editors reveals.

The Pontiff's January pilgrimage of peace, apart from being the first visit to the Holy Land by a pope since Peter, also was the scene of his exchange of visits with Patriarch Athenagoras I of Constantinople, leader of the Orthodox churches.

The visits marked the first time that a pope and a patriarch of Constantinople met since the 15th century. And it was only the second such encounter in more than 1,250 years.

Introduction of the vernacular in the Latin Rite Mass was selected as the year's second biggest story by the 72 editors who took part in the third annual poll conducted by the NCWC News Service.

Third choice was the promulgation Nov. 21 of the Second Vatican Council's monumental declarations on the nature of the Church, including the principle of collegiality, on ecumenism and on Eastern Churches.

OTHER STORIES

The other seven stories in order of preference in the top ten chosen by diocesan editors are:

● Pope Paul's second major overseas trip of 1964, his visit (Dec. 2 to 5) to the International Eucharistic Congress held in Bombay, India.

● Pope Paul's June 23 disclosure that the Church is in the process of a major reevaluation of the question of birth control and his assertion that for the present the pronouncements by Pope Pius XII are to be considered valid and binding for all Catholics.

● Congressional passage in June of the civil rights act with the vigorous support of major U.S. religious bodies.

● The strong support given by ranking Catholic prelates of North America to the Second Vatican Council's proposals on religious freedom and on relationships with the Jews.

● Issuance in August of Pope Paul VI's first encyclical, "Ecclesiam Suam," in which the Pontiff pointed to a unique role for the Church as God's means of saving mankind and to the importance of man's recognition of this role.

● The decision, on the next-to-last working day of the third session of the Vatican Council, to postpone a preliminary vote on the declaration on religious liberty and the consequent unsuccessful protest by several ranking council fathers to Pope Paul VI.

● The late August riots by Buddhist and Catholic demonstrators in Saigon, Vietnam.

RUNNERUP STORIES

Five runnersup in the editors' balloting are these stories: the canonization of 22 Uganda martyrs; the controversy over the role of Pope Pius XII in helping the Jews during World War II, heightened by the play, "The Deputy;" shipping of Michelangelo's priceless "Pieta" from the Vatican for exhibition at the New York World's Fair.

Also, the preliminary vote of approval by the Vatican Council of the declaration on relations with non-Christians, including the Jews; and the controversy in California over Proposition 14 on the November ballot by which votes banned fair housing laws despite explicit opposition to the proposition by many religious leaders, including the Catholic Bishops of the northern part of the state.

The Magi: Proof That God Willed All Races' Salvation

If God ever gave external proof that He willed the salvation of all men, regardless of race or color, it is to be found in the story of the Magi.

What makes the calling of the three men to the faith the more extraordinary is the fact that for thousands of years before the Nativity of Our Lord the Gentiles had not worshipped the One True God. They had erred "from the right way and adored idols." Hence they had fallen into the most shameful vices.

Only the Jews had kept alive belief in One God and to them alone had been given the divine revelation.

When the shepherds were called to the Crib of Christ, they symbolized the divine invitation to the Jews.

But when the Magi were invited to make the extremely difficult trip from the East, they were going, as it were, in our name. They were our representatives, the spiritual ancestors of Gentiles. Later Our Lord was to say that salvation was of the Jews, meaning that they were to be given every opportunity to believe in Him and His Gospel, before the Apostles went forth to invade the vast Gentile nations. He made it plain, however, that His Church, in the days of Peter as in the time of Paul VI, was meant for all men of all nations.

Therefore, every year the feast of the Epiphany comes in for most solemn commemoration, as the Church reminds us of our duty of gratitude to God for the privilege of having the faith. And we are reminded that the gifts brought by our spiritual ancestors, gold, frankincense, myrrh, are the very gifts God expects from us.

By gold, the Magi acknowledged the royalty of the Christ Child and His right to govern the whole world. We give God the gift of gold, when charity has the first place in our lives, and we prove we love God and neighbor by being obedient to the commandments of God and of the Church.

By frankincense, the Magi acknowledged the divinity of the Infant, since incense is associated with adoration and sacrifice and prayer. Our gift of frankincense is found in our daily prayers rising up to God and in the tribute of our unquestioning faith.

The Magi used myrrh as a symbol of the humanity of Christ, for it was a means of embalming a body. This gift we offer God when faithful to the regulations governing fast and abstinence and go beyond that to voluntary mortification.

It is not difficult to see why Epiphany the world over is considered a great feast of gratitude.

CARDINAL CUSHING SUGGESTS CATHOLICS READ BIBLE MORE

BOSTON (NC) — Boston's Richard Cardinal Cushing advised Catholics to emulate their Protestant brethren and spend more time reading the Bible. He urged "at least five minutes each day" of Bible reading.

"For some reason or other, Catholics are reluctant to read the Bible," the cardinal said in a sermon at Cathedral of the Holy Cross. "But Protestants not only read the Bible, but study it. I met a woman who knows the Book of Psalms by heart and, to be honest, I don't know one Psalm by heart."

U.S. 'Impacted' Aid Has No Help For Parochial Schools

By J. J. GILBERT

WASHINGTON (NC) — The National Education Association has announced that, as a part of its legislative program for 1965, it will seek expansion of the Federal "impacted aid" program, namely Public Laws 817 and 815.

The NEA is saddling a new, but tested, horse for the next running of an old established race.

The event is the Federal aid to education stakes race, which is most likely to be prominent on the program for the 89th Congress. In previous runnings of this grueling legislative test, the NEA has backed "general federal aid to education." Each time heretofore, its color-bearer has faded in the stretch, after being boxed in by "segregation" and "religious issues."

But with "impacted aid" the NEA has a seasoned campaign-er that has won on every outing. His record is so good, in fact, that the NEA feels it can make him carry more weight, and still win.

NEA has two proposals for broadening "impacted aid." Participation in the Federal aid is now based on the percentage of pupils in school districts who are the children of government workers on military and defense installations. The NEA would lower the percentage requirements, thus increasing the number of participants. Second, it would change the definition of "impact" to include the children of low income families.

No one will object to the assistance reaching out to embrace economically deprived children. But why should such aid be confined to the public school children? This is certainly contrary to the spirit of the anti-poverty campaign.

Voluntary Poverty Upheld By Example Of Nazareth

By FATHER JOHN B. SHEERIN

Is poverty a virtue? No, it is a political problem. I dare say that this is the opinion of most Americans.

As individuals we are a generous people: last year donations to needy causes on the domestic scene totaled $10 billion. That same generosity is evident in the foreign aid given by our government to underdeveloped countries.

FR. SHEERIN

The popular impression seems to be that foreign aid coupled with birth control programs will eventually solve the global problem of poverty.

Then why talk about the need of voluntary poverty?

Well, I was equally puzzled at the Council when I first heard one of the innumerable sermons delivered on the subject of poverty.

I could understand foreign aid by the U. S. Government but I found it difficult to see any connection between the practice of poverty and the relief of hunger.

The talk by the lay auditor, James Norris, shed light on the question. He cited the fact that the nations around the North Atlantic (and that includes us) constitute only 16 per cent of the population of the world but own 70 per cent of its wealth. These nations are Christian, at least in tradition, and we must remember that we hold this wealth in trust for the poor.

As Maritain showed in a little book of his American experiences some years ago, the Americans are not idolaters of money. They give more freely than do the Europeans. Yet the fact is that we are attached to what money can bring.

As I see it, all this creates a special problem for the American Catholic woman. If it is true, as the sociologists tell us, that American women own and control most of the American wealth, then the American Catholic woman is faced with a severe temptation, the desire to put on a show.

Consider, for instance, a fashion column that appeared recently in the New York Herald Tribune. Called "The Great Fashions," it was written by Eugenia Sheppard, who writes there are sables and sables but the prize goes to Mme. Potok's sable.

Soft as a powder puff, it makes every woman who wears it look like a movie queen luxuriating in a tub of marabou. She refuses to tell the price of the sable because of husbands and tax collectors "but everybody knows that Russian sable isn't exactly raccoon." Some women have several coats in this design.

Then she goes on to discuss ballroom gowns. "The sari dress, said to cost $3,000, is another sexy charmer." Then of course there is Sarmi's green chiffon embroidered in pink jewels. This is quite common this year, don't you know. "Plenty of husbands batted their eyes when they heard that Sarmi's red velvet and chiffon hit, a few seasons ago, cost $800 but this year's beauties are around $1,000."

Not many Catholic women will be paying these prices. But they will be facing the problem to a lesser degree — how to be the salt of society and the light of the local community without falling into the prevalent idolatry of show. Or should we say that the poverty of Nazareth was an accident of history that has no significance for New York?

We Should Resolve To Pray In Mornings

By Msgr. JAMES J. WALSH

There is a "little resolution" that turns up on almost everyone's list some time in life. This is the resolution about morning prayers.

MSGR. WALSH

Now, needless to say, this is not a major problem of the spiritual life. But it is by no means unimportant either. No one is going to lose the state of grace by preferring a moment of coffee to a moment of prayer. Most Catholics who miss morning prayers feel a sense of guilt.

Most likely this is because of our conviction that religion is meant to be an every day business with us, and something needed is lacking when the day begins without a moment of prayer being directed to God.

The early morning schedule of the modern American home may best be described as chaotic. This claim hardly needs any proof.

A typical morning's program calls for the alarm clock to be set at the latest possible moment, foreseeing that a half a minute will be needed for the daily unexpected event, which in turn tears down the time allotted for breakfast and causes a traffic jam in the living room, as the family tries to break into the clear for work, school or the round of household duties.

In the mad rush, something has to be neglected, it seems. And when the minutes are so scarce, too often no time is left for morning prayers except perhaps a pious regret and a brief, mild sense of loss.

SOMETHING LOST

We do lose something, perhaps much, by this neglect. This first lifting up of the mind and heart to God establishes contact with Him. It is a conscious effort to center Him in your life, to make sure that the day, whatever it may bring, will revolve around Him. When we get the same gift over and over again, we can fail to appreciate it and take it for granted.

So it is easy to forget that every day is a new, wonderful gift of God, actually different in many ways from any other gift of time in the past.

Morning prayers help us to remember this and therefore to start the day with gratitude. At the end of the day we will be that much closer to death and judgment. We will be either better or worse than in the morning, but not the same.

Morning prayers remind us, too, that each day is a new chance to honor God, to get to know Him better, to love Him more. It is a precious reprieve, a last time of reparation.

Each day is a gift of many hours in which one can pick up the broken pieces of the past and set one's soul at peace. It may well be one's last day, the last time one will see the sun rise.

Each day has hundreds of minutes, any one of which is enough to bring down from heaven the divine help needed to change the soul from death to life.

EVERY DAY A MYSTERY

Every morning we face a day of mystery. It is sure to bring trials and temptations. We never know for sure the kind of troubles that await us. The day that starts like any other may indeed be the most important of our lives. It may be the day set aside from all eternity for us to meet someone who will change our life and give it a new direction.

There may be a special grace saved just for this particular day or a severe trial never dreamed of or an attack of the devil never experienced before.

Each day, therefore, needs to begin with the blessing of God. This is what morning prayer can do for us. When we take a moment to salute God, we give Him honor and recognize Him as Father and Benefactor. But more than that, we impress on ourselves that in the hours just ahead we can do nothing without His cooperation. We have no reserve of natural strength to fall back on, if this day is to be a day of unusual trial. We are in constant need of help. Morning prayers put our hands in God's and make us remember He not only gave us the day but wants it back from us with interest.

SENSE OF PARTNERSHIP

With that sense of partnership, with the awareness of Our Lady's interest in every detail of our day, no problem will overwhelm us and no fear will discourage us.

At the very beginning of the day, those who cannot go to Mass and receive Holy Communion, can still gain from time spent in careful prayer the graces needed to see them through the day.

And of course by making the morning offering, one transforms the whole day, every thought, word and action, into one long prayer or act of penance.

We may think that we are getting along very well without morning prayers. But we are missing more than we realize. This is a "little resolution" which should be made at the beginning of a new year and renewed often thereafter.

The Only Basis For Peace Is Order Established By God

By Father AMBROSE DePAOLI

ROME — If anyone cares to sort through the many Christmas cards he has received this year, I am sure that he will agree that the message of peace is the central theme of the printed greetings.

FR. DePAOLI

Indeed, such a message has its place in any Christmas greeting. After all, the Prince of Peace was born during the so-called "Roman Peace" and His birth was announced with no less a message than "Peace on earth to men of good will."

Admitted that all this is good and true, this message has done some editing with the gospel text. The angels appeared to the shepherds, gave their message, and then praised God by saying, "Glory to God in high heaven and peace on earth . . ." (Luke, 2:14)

In much the same way we constantly quote Our Lord's answer to which is the greatest commandment as "Love your neighbor as yourself", forgetting that this was introduced with "Listen, Israel; there is no God but the Lord thy God; and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with the love of thy whole heart, and thy whole soul, and thy whole mind, and thy whole strength." (Mark, 12:28-31)

Unconsciously, as it were, and without any malicious intent, we have ignored the essential part of the Christian message in both these phrases.

COMMENT FROM ROME

The second part is utterly void of meaning and is impossible if the first part is not observed.

Peace is based on order, as the encyclical "Pacem in Terris" indicates so clearly. Yet the order discussed in its pages is that order established by God.

Our intelligence sees order in all things and this order leads us to discover and recognize a fundamental, immovable principle as the basis of this order — God.

The word "recognize" is used in its full scriptural meaning, whereby the whole person, intellect and will, accepts God, in faith and love as the moving central force of its very existence, in contradistinction to an abstract and somewhat archival sense of the word "know", a sense of merely cataloging information without making any decision in its regard.

At the risk of weighing down this article with scriptural quotes, I would like to call attention to the letter of St. Paul to the Romans, 1:18-32, where, in no uncertain terms, Paul shows us that disorder is the lot of mankind which has refused to recognize God.

"And as they scorned to keep God in their view, so God has abandoned them to a frame of mind worthy of all scorn . . . They are versed in every kind of injustice . . . impurity, avarice . . . haughty, vainglorious . . . without love, without loyalty, without pity."

It is only natural that this same message of the recognition of God be found in "Pacem in Terris". Pope John refers to the order on which peace must be founded as being of its nature moral.

"Now an order of this kind, whose principles are universal, absolute and unchangeable, has its ultimate source in the one true God, Who is personal and transcends human nature . . . He alone is the deepest source from which human society can draw its vitality, if that society is to be well ordered . . ." (Part I, sec. God and the moral order)

CELEBRANT: Now that we have listened to The Word of God and had its meaning explained to us, let us join in invoking God's assistance for our Holy Church, for the civil authorities, for those oppressed by various needs, and for the salvation of all men.

1. PRIEST OR LECTOR: That the New Year may bring greater peace to this troubled world and a lessening of the threat of a nuclear holocaust, we pray to the Lord.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

2. PRIEST OR LECTOR: That Our Holy Father, Pope Paul, may draw the hearts and minds of all men to Christ through his leadership of God's Church during the year 1965, we pray to the Lord.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

3. PRIEST OR LECTOR: That the leaders of nations may, in this year, be filled more with a Christ-like love for all men and less with the spirit of an arrogant and narrow nationalism, we pray to the Lord.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

4. PRIEST OR LECTOR: That the President and other leaders of this great nation may, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, govern with ever more perfect Christian charity and justice during the year 1965, we pray to the Lord.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

5. PRIEST OR LECTOR: That our local civil community may, in this year, make continued progress in the field of interracial justice and harmony, we pray to the Lord.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

6. PRIEST OR LECTOR: That all Baptized Christians may increasingly regard their baptism as a pledge of their personal commitment to God and to His sacramental way of salvation, we pray to the Lord.

PEOPLE: Lord, have mercy.

CELEBRANT: O God, our refuge and strength, give heed to the pious prayers of Your Church, You Who are the source of devotion; grant that what we ask in faith we may obtain in deed: Through Our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who is God, living and reigning with You, in the Unity of the Holy Spirit, forever and ever.

PEOPLE: Amen.

God Love You

Most Reverend

Fulton J. Sheen

What the Church owes to a beautiful 19-year-old girl! It was the wealthy daughter of a silk manufacturer of Lyons, France, Pauline Jaricot, who founded a way of aiding the Missions which every Pontiff from Pius XI to Paul VI calls his own, namely, The Society for the Propagation of the Faith. One day while watching two sanctuary lamps, one slowly burning out, Pauline thought how wonderful it would be for the full one to pour some of its oil into the needy vessel. Applying this to the Missions, she began organizing groups of ten, each of which was to give a French sou (penny) to the Missions. These ten were to gather ten more, and so forth.

The money she collected was not much at first, but she gave it all to one missionary society in Paris which used it only for its members who had missions in Asia. Then in 1822, Pauline approached a wealthy man of Lyons, Monsieur Coste, who refused to aid her saying: "No! The distribution is too exclusive. Would it not be better to establish one collecting agency for the entire world? There are poor missions everywhere." Pauline had already begun to think that The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, which she founded, should be "Catholic", and so she began serving the world.

In 1922, 100 years after its foundation, The Society for the Propagation of the Faith was moved to Rome by Pope Pius XI. There is made the Church's own missionary society. It is the only missionary society in the entire Church which aids the whole world. The poor missions of the United States, for example, last year received $3,500,000. Latin America, the Near East, Asia Oceania — you name it — WHEREVER there are Missions, there help is given.

When the Church moved the Society to Rome, the Holy Father said: "Its purpose is to equalize aid." When each society solicits help, there is great inequality; some receive much and others little. Rarely does one society give money to another society, so the Church, which has to help everyone, was forced to have a society such as The Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

When, therefore, the time comes to make your will, to take out an annuity (and incidentally reduce taxes) or to make reparation for your sins, give aid first to the Missions everywhere in the world. As the Holy Father said, "The Society for the Propagation of the Faith is first and principally to be aided." The alms and sacrifices are not invested, nor put in Wall Street or in stocks and bonds. All alms received are distributed to the Missions of the world that very year. Nothing is kept for investment. NOTHING! This does not make worldly sense in this day when there is such a tendency to pile up wealth, but it does make heavenly sense. Write to me about your annuity and your will and send alms. Nothing you give to the Holy Father for the poor of the world will end in a bank vault or in investments. There are too many poor.

GOD LOVE YOU to a student for $1 "I promised a donation and public acknowledgement in thanksgiving to the Blessed Mother and to all the saints who helped me with my school-work." . . . to Anon. for $2 "I want to aid the Holy Father through the Missions and send this offering for a Mass."

The color of each of the WORLD MISSION ROSARY'S decades symbolizes one of the five continents of the world where missionaries are laboring to bring souls to Christ. Those of you who cannot go to the Missions can strengthen those who work in your place by praying for them. To receive the WORLD MISSION ROSARY which has been blessed by Bishop Sheen, send your request and an offering of $2 to The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10001, or to your Diocesan Director, Rev. Neil Flemming, 6301 Biscayne Blvd., Miami 38, Florida.

Holiday Mood Of Saigon Changed By Bomb Tragedy

By Father PATRICK O'CONNOR

SAIGON (NC) — The more than 100 persons injured in the Christmas Eve explosion in the Brink Hotel, an American officers' residence, were swiftly moved to a U.S. Navy hospital.

Father Robert Crawford, C.M., from Philadelphia, hurried to the hospital, which he attends whenever the Army Catholic chaplain is covering units outside the city. Father Crawford is the parish priest of the English-speaking Catholics of Saigon.

The powerful blast shattered windows of nearby buildings. At first it was believed nobody had been killed outright. Later it was discovered that one officer, Lt. Col. James R. Hagen of Oklahoma City, whose room was above the place where the bomb exploded, was killed. David W. Agnew of Winter Park, Fla., died of injuries in the hospital.

A fierce fire, probably feeding on the gasoline in burning vehicles, was soon quelled by Saigon firemen.

This correspondent was three blocks away in another American officers' hotel, looking over the third floor chapel where he was to celebrate Midnight Mass for the Catholic residents of the hotel, when the explosion shook the street.

He reached the Brink Hotel through Saigon crowds whose Christmas holiday mood had suddenly changed. They watched billowing smoke, then flames rising from the ground floor of the bombed building. Already the injured were on their way in every kind of available vehicle to the hospital, even before ambulances could arrive.

An American colonel was sending teams to search through each floor of the building for injured. A couple of stretcher cases were brought out, but by that time most of the men coming down the glass-strewn stairs were able to walk, though bleeding from cuts and gashes.

The total number of casualties was reported the next day to be 107, some of whom were only slightly injured. They included one Australian officer and 43 Vietnamese.

The explosion at 6 p.m. did not deter large crowds from attending Christmas night Masses at the cathedral, only five blocks from the bombed Brink Hotel. Congregations packed the church for 8:30 and 10 p.m. Masses. In other years Christmas Midnight Mass was usually celebrated out of doors in what is now John F. Kennedy Square facing the cathedral.

3 More Missioners Expelled From Brazzaville In Congo

PARIS (NC) — Three more missionary priests have been expelled from the former French Congo for alleged activities against the Brazzaville government.

The priests, all Holy Ghost Fathers, have been identified as Father Bernard Aquillon of Dolisie mission, Father Etienne Dattas of Madingou mission and Father Jean Bergeron of Liranga mission.

The Congo Republic of Brazzaville borders the former Belgian Congo where scores of missionaries have been driven out or killed by rebels. Although the Brazzaville Congo has not been the scene of native rebellions, relations there between the Catholic Church and the government of Alphonse Massamba-Debat have been deteriorating rapidly.

One French priest and four lay missionaries were expelled from the country in November. Another priest, Father Louis Badilia, editor of La Semaine Africaine (The African Weekly), is still held in a Brazzaville jail.

Two other priests had been arrested and tortured previously for sheltering Fulgence Biyaoula, president of the African Confederation of Christian Workers, who was being sought by the authorities.

Respect Human Rights, Prelate Asks Reds

BERLIN (NC) — Stefan Cardinal Wyszynski challenged the Polish communist regime to respect the rights of man in his Christmas sermon, according to reports received here from Warsaw. The Polish Primate also extended his personal Christmas greetings to the government.

Cardinal Wyszynski reminded the congregation at his Cathedral of St. John in Warsaw that the Polish government had publicly accepted the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. Now, he said, it is expected that this acknowledgment be followed by deeds.

"There can be no peace — political, economic or social — without the basic rights of man being respected: the right to freedom of conscience, freedom of expression, freedom of religious practice," he declared.

He also was quoted as saying that "respect for government would not be achieved by police, gendarmerie, the penal code and prisons, but by respect for the rights of human beings."

HONG KONG CONFIRMATION. Bishop Lawrence Bianchi administers to these young mothers at Our Lady Of Angels parish.

Dr. M. D. FitzGerald Dies; Knight Of Holy Sepulchre

Solemn Requiem Mass was sung Wednesday in the Cathedral for Dr. Maurice David FitzGerald, Knight of the Holy Sepulchre, and prominent radiologist and Serra Club member, who died last Sunday at the age of 51.

Bishop Coleman F. Carroll assisted at the Mass sung by Msgr. William F. McKeever, pastor, Little Flower parish, Hollywood; and gave the final absolution.

Father Lambert Hickson, C.P., retreat director at Holy Name Monastery, Houston, Tex., and long-time friend of Dr. FitzGerald was deacon and Father Gregory Fleischer, O.S.B., assistant pastor, the Cathedral parish, was subdeacon. Father Arthur DeBevoise and Father Joseph Brunner were masters of ceremonies.

Msgr. Patrick J. O'Donoghue, V.G., rector of the Cathedral and Msgr. Peter Reilly, pastor, Little Flower parish, Coral Gables, were chaplains to Bishop Carroll.

A member of Little Flower parish, Hollywood, who formerly was a parishioner of Little Flower Church, Coral Gables, Dr. FitzGerald was a founding member and first president of the Serra Club of Evansville, Ind., and a member of the Miami Serra Club.

A native of Chicago, Dr. FitzGerald received his doctorate in medicine from Loyola University and practiced medicine in Chicago from 1937 to 1940. He served on the staffs of Mercy Hospital and Little Company of Mary Hospital in Chicago from 1946 to 1950, and was also an associate in radiology in Cook County Hospital. From 1956 to 1961 he was director of radiology at St. Mary Hospital, Evansville, Ind. For one year, Dr. FitzGerald was the associate in radiology at St. Margaret Hospital, Peru, Ill.

Since coming to South Florida in January, 1963, he has been an associate in radiology at Miami's Mercy Hospital and Memorial Hospital in Hollywood. During World War II, Dr. FitzGerald was a major in the U.S. Army and served in the Southwest Pacific area.

He was a member of the Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, the American College of Radiology and the Radiology Society of North America, British Institute of Radiology, the American Society of Tropical Medicine and the American Geriatric Society. In addition, he was founder and first president of the Tri-State Radiological Society of Indiana.

In addition to his wife, Mary Frances, Dr. FitzGerald is survived by two sons, David J., and Patrick J.; four daughters, Maureen, Jean, Martha and Janet, all of Hollywood; two brothers, John E., Oshkosh, Wis. and Thomas S., Chicago; and a sister, Miss Helena R. FitzGerald, Chicago.

Entombment was in Our Lady of Mercy Mausoleum under the direction of McHale Funeral Home.

SANTA CLAUS welcomed more than 200 preschool children to a Christmas party sponsored last week at Centro Hispano Catolico, di-cesan Spanish center in downtown Miami. Hundreds of gifts were distributed to the Spanish speaking youngsters during the afternoon.

Cardinal Spellman Spends Christmas Near Castroland

GUANTANAMO BAY (NC) — On the doorstep of the western world's bastion of atheistic communism, Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York brought the Christmas message of the Prince of Peace to hundreds in this nation's defense forces.

High point of the cardinal's 14th consecutive Christmas visit to U.S. military personnel stationed overseas was the Christmas Midnight Mass offered in the chapel at the strategic naval base here.

For the first time in his 48-year priesthood Cardinal Spellman offered Mass at an altar facing the congregation in the English vernacular. He was assisted at the Mass by Father (Lt. Comdr.) Alfred F. Van Beck of Milwaukee, the base's chief Catholic chaplain, and Msgr. Patrick V. Ahern, the cardinal's secretary and traveling companion.

From a guard post close by, Cardinal Spellman got a view of the other side of the "cactus curtain" where the communistic forces of Fidel Castro dominate. Next the cardinal was taken on a helicopter trip and got a birdseye view of Castroland.

After eating Christmas dinner with hundreds of enlisted men in a base mess hall, the cardinal returned to base headquarters and in the chapel offered his third Christmas Mass at 4 p.m.

Cardinal Spellman, military vicar of the U.S. armed forces, arrived here from Puerto Rico by Navy plane. He was met by Rear Adm. John D. Bulkeley, commander of the base here and members of his staff.

In Puerto Rico, Cardinal

Spellman had officiated at the consecration of Bishop Fremiot Torres Oliver of Ponce, and then visited Army, Navy and Marine installations on the island.

In a high school auditorium at Fort Buchanan, P.R., the cardinal offered Christmas eve Mass for more than 300 Army, Marine and Navy servicemen and members of their families.

800 Get Holiday Meal At Camillus House

CAMILLUS HOUSE patrons line up for Christmas dinner. A total of 800 men were served dinner there on the holiday thanks to the generosity of not only Catholics but Jews and Protestants.

An ecumenical spirit prevailed at Camillus House for Christmas dinner there.

No one was turned away, regardless of race, creed or color — as has always been the case.

And Jews, Protestants and Catholics all contributed to help provide the dinner for the destitute and the homeless who went to Camillus for their holiday meal.

The number served a turkey dinner on Christmas day of 1964 — 800 — was a good deal less than last year when 1,800 were fed . . . but Brother John of God, one of the Little Brothers of the Good Shepherd who staff Camillus House said there apparently were reasons for this.

"For one thing," he said "we seem to have more people calling us up asking for men to do some work for them."

Brother John pointed out that this helps provide some of the out-of-work men in the area with a little money with which to buy food and thus reduces the number of men coming to Camillus House.

Another factor, that apparently reduced the number of men coming to Camillus House for their holiday dinner, he said, was that there seemed to be fewer "new faces" this year in the meal lines that form daily outside Camillus House.

In addition to the regular patrons of Camillus, Brother John explained that normally about this time of year when the weather begins to get cold up North a number of "new faces" usually appear. However, these "new faces" were not present in as great numbers as they have been in previous years.

Brother John said he wished

Voice Photos

A Turkey Dinner Was Served To All On Christmas At Camillus House

to thank "in the name of the Little Brothers of the Good Shepherd and also in the name of the poor people who come to Camillus House" all those who contributed food or money for the Christmas dinner there.

The Brothers of the Good Shepherd issued a special thanks to the Jewish people and Protestants in addition to the Catholics, who made donations of food, money or toys to Camillus House.

"The Jewish people have been excellent" in their donations to Camillus House this year, said Brother John of God, adding: "they really have done a great amount for us."

In addition to serving Christmas dinners, Camillus House distributed toys to more than 100 needy children. Many of the toys were donated by a number of Protestant Sunday schools.

The only thing missing at Camillus House on Christmas was a Santa Claus. "Someone had planned to come and play Santa Claus for us," said Brother John of God, "but he was unable to make it for some reason."

Holy Name Society Officers Will Meet At Monastery

The Executive Board of the Diocesan Union of Holy Name Societies will hold a meeting on Saturday, Jan. 23, at the Our Lady of Florida Monastery and Retreat House in North Palm Beach.

John J. Boylan of Lantana, president of the Diocesan Union, urged any parish Holy Name Society that might have a matter they wished discussed at the meeting to contact any member of the board which consists of the diocesan officers, the committee chairmen and the deanery presidents.

Boylan issued a special reminder to all parish societies that their annual assessment to the Diocesan Union is now due. Boylan pointed out that 25 per cent of this amount is returned to the Holy Name Deaneries.

In citing the uses to which the money is put, Boylan had this to say:

"We are getting out a monthly bulletin, plus many other special mailings. Also a further supply of binders has been purchased for parish societies paid for by the Diocesan Union.

"We also have in the past underwritten losses at the annual convention. This has been done to keep the fee for registration as low as possible in order that the greatest number of members might attend."

Boylan also pointed out in a special statement issued to all parish Holy Name Societies that beginning with this year, 1965, all parish societies must elect new officers during the month of April.

Boylan noted that this was in accordance to a change in the bylaws of the Diocesan Union of Holy Name Societies. He explained that it "will unify our election dates and make the job of our Diocesan Union much easier."

The Voice All-Star Football Team Of 1964

YOUNG

By JACK HOUGHTELING

An all-new Voice all-star football team has been selected for the 1964 season with special recognition going to Chaminade High's Class A Regional champions with halfback Danny Maitlen selected as the diocese's outstanding player and Glen Martin, the Lions' head coach, as the coach of the year.

There isn't a single repeater from last year's all-star squad as a new cast of faces moved to the front this year.

In addition to Maitlen, the backfield is composed of quarterback Rene Torrado of Archbishop Curley, halfback Bill Drown of Cardinal Newman and fullback Gene Dunlevy of Cardinal Gibbons.

The line is topped by Curley's 210-pound tackle Ron Young, Chaminade's second-team little all-star guard Jack Kearney, 195, and a pair of Miami all-city picks, end Greg Golding of Curley, 165, and guard Joe Flaherty of Christopher Columbus, 170.

Completing the line are end Joe Hernandez of Columbus, 190, tackle Don Beattenmuller of Newman, 188, and center

George Luzarraga of LaSalle, 200.

All members of the first team are seniors with the exception of Luzarraga.

As a unit, the first team line averages 187 pounds while the backfield comes in at a sturdy 177.

Maitlen added the diocese honors to his season-long collection of awards, including all-Broward County and Little All-State first team.

During the regular nine game schedule for Chaminade, Maitlen averaged 8.7 yards a carry, scored 88 points on 14 touchdowns and had four touchdown runs of 54 yards or longer.

In addition, he was a stand-out on defense as a linebacker.

Martin, a veteran coach from the West Virginia high school circles, built the Chaminade squad into a South Florida small school power in just two seasons. His team's only two regular season losses were to the larger Class AA schools, both defeats by a single point.

The Lions also defeated three AA schools.

Chaminade lost in the state semi-finals to eventual Class A champ Wildwood and finished the year with a 7-3 record. He was earlier picked as Broward County's coach of the year.

The Voice all-star second team is composed of ends John Gass of Newman and Jim Patterson of Curley, tackles George Colgin of Chaminade and Jim Mennes of Curley, guards John Conrad of Columbus and Rom Kairalla of Newman, center Tom Welsh of Gibbons, quarterback Jack Garner of Chaminade, halfbacks George Bracy of Gibbons and Tom Koziol of LaSalle and fullback Mike O'Brien of Columbus.

The second team includes four juniors, Colgin, Bracy, Koziol and O'Brien.

The selections were particularly close at end, tackle and guards positions.

In all, six of the eight diocese schools fielding football teams are represented on the first two teams with Curley getting five of the top 22 spots.

Columbus, Chaminade, and Newman each placed four members on the first two teams while Gibbons had three and LaSalle a pair.

News Of High Schools In The Diocese

Jim Ailant, a member of the Catholic Forensic League team at Bishop Verot High School in Fort Myers, took first place in all four rounds of a National Forensic League tournament held at Sarasota High School.

Four students from Bishop Verot High School, under the supervision of Sister James Francis, who is in charge of the Forensic League team, competed in the tournament at Sarasota High.

The four were: Ailant, Mary Vogt, Michèle Hitzing and Robert Bruce.

Sister Rosanne, guidance director and Mother Bernard Mary, principal of Verot High School, attended a three-day meeting in Jacksonville of the Florida Personnel and Guidance Association.

Prior to the beginning of the holiday vacation for students at Central Catholic High School in Fort Pierce, members of the Journalism class were sent out on an assignment. They were given certain boundaries and 20 minutes of time.

The students came back with feature and news stories. Among these were the discovery of a pair of lost shoes lying on a main street and an interview with a Christmas tree. All of the students enjoyed the exercise and it gave the class members a chance to see what the job of a roving reporter is like.

The Latin Club of Central Catholic held a meeting at which papers were read on Roman gods and goddesses. Among these were Minerva, Venus and Jupiter.

Freshmen students at St. Thomas Aquinas High School in Fort Lauderdale presented "The Miracle Of Guadalupe" to Religion I classes. The play was given under the supervision of Sister Therese Margaret, O.P.

Director for the play was Fred Rock. His assistant was John Page. The cast included: Donna Meyer, Roberta Santini, Victor Rujals, Ronald Rhinehart, Dennis Driscoll, George Winton, and Dianne Cleer. The costumes and scenery were designed by Barbara Ricci.

Patricia Sanderson and Jim Shevlin members of Aquinas High's Forensic League team, took third place certificates in girls and boys extemporaneous speaking respectively in a National Forensic League tournament held at Miami Beach High School. Other Aquinas students attending the tournament were: Linda Ouimet, JoAnn Bucci, Jay Smallwood, Edwina Zagami, Jerry Esposito and Jim Harvitt.

The National Honor Society of Cardinal Gibbons High School in Fort Lauderdale held an induction of new members.

President Dick Ott enumerated the accomplishments of the newly inducted junior students as each lit four candles signifying scholarship, leadership, character and service. James Huser, guidance director at Pompano High School, addressed the student body as guest speaker.

Those students inducted included: Daryl Smith, Paul Ott, Adrienne Roy, Mike Dissette, Elizabeth Stanley, Charlie Zapalla, Gary Geriffi, Eileen McDargh, John McDargh, Joe Kovaz, Louise Ross, Ray Powers and Edwina Dionis.

A special award was presented to Pat Dissette during the assembly for membership in McCall's Teen Fashion Board.

The second edition of "The Pacesetter" was distributed to students of Msgr. Pace High School before school was dismissed for the holidays.

A Pre-Christmas visitor to the school was Bob Preziosi, a Pace alumnus and former senior class president.

A freshman at Notre Dame University, Preziosi spoke to the school's college-bound seniors on various aspects of college life, including orientation problems and dormitory life.

The Christmas dance, sponsored by the Sodality, was held last Saturday.

Members of the Legion of Mary of LaSalle High School have been teaching catechism in a number of parishes. This project is the main purpose of the Legion.

A Christmas Formal dar sponsored by the Immaculi. LaSalle High School's Parish Auxiliary, was held last Monday. Music was provided by the Twi-Lights.

The student's Spirit Committee will sponsor a dance on Saturday, Jan. 16.

Five Teams Unbeaten In Dade CYO Hoop League

Only five teams are still unbeaten in the Dade County CYO Basketball League.

The five are: Holy Rosary, Epiphany EE and Corpus Christi in the South Dade Division and St. Rose of Lima and St. Mary Cathedral in the North Dade Division.

The Cathedral has a record of two wins and no losses while the other teams all have records of three wins and no defeats.

The Cathedral was idle on the opening day of the league season.

Both of the Cathedral's victories have been impressive ones. The first was an easy 41-6 win over St. Monica and the second, last Sunday at North Miami Beach Auditorium, was a 59-15 triumph over Blessed Trinity which has a record of three losses and no wins thus far this season.

In chalking up its third straight win of the season Corpus Christi easily defeated Epiphany Holy Name 42-13 at the Columbus High School gymnasium.

Epiphany EE's third consecutive victory came in a narrow 18-17 win over SS. Peter and Paul.

The only other undefeated team in the South Dade Division, Holy Rosary CYO rolled past St. Michael CYO 30-23.

The leader in the North Dade Division, St. Rose of Lima, defeated St. James CYO by a score of 39-20 to keep its unbeaten record.

In other North Dade Division games, Holy Redeemer won over Our Lady of Perpetual Help CYO 39-22; St. Monica defeated St. Lawrence CYO 28-16 and Visitation rolled up an easy win over St. Vincent de Paul 28-10.

In the South Dade Division, St. Louis swamped St. Thomas the Apostle CYO 32-9 and St. Dominic defeated St. Timothy 31-13.

Broward Division games saw St. Clement defeat St. Stephen 52-29; St. Anthony win over St. Coleman CYO 18-10 and St. Gregory gain a triumph over St. Vincent 26-23.

The schedule for Sunday, Jan. 3 is as follows:

SOUTH DADE DIVISION

Christopher Columbus High School
12:30—St. Louis vs SS. Peter & Paul
1:30—Holy Rosary vs Corpus Christi
2:30—Epiphany E. vs St. Timothy
3:30—St. Dominic vs Epiphany EE

2:00—Opa-Locka vs St. Vincent
3:00—St. Coleman vs St. Gregory

(Little Flower Gym)

2:00—Little Flower vs St. Stephen
3:00—St. Clement vs St. Anthony

Planeando la Marcha

Balance de un Año

Por Gustavo Pena Monte

1964 quedó atrás con sus luces y sus sombras, con sus momentos de alegría y triunfo y sus instantes de dolor, persecución, negación de los valores cristianos.

La introducción de la lengua vernácula en la liturgia de la misa y los sacramentos, sobresale entre los acontecimientos religiosos de este año que acaba de terminar. Con esta reforma litúrgica el pueblo se hace más partícipe del Santo Sacrificio, comprende y recibe mejor los sacramentos, se acerca más a Dios, porque le está hablando ahora en su propio idioma. La misa de cara al pueblo, que en 1964 comenzó a practicarse, acerca también más a la congregación al sublime sacrificio y la recitación en voz alta y el canto de himnos religiosos crea un espíritu más comunitario en la asamblea cristiana que es la misa.

Paulo VI inició el año con una peregrinación a la Tierra Santa y lo terminó con otro viaje a la India, para asistir al Congreso Eucarístico Internacional celebrado en Bombay. En ambas ocasiones el Santo Padre atrajo la atención del mundo entero, era la primera vez que un Pontífice Romano viajaba en avión, era desusado ver al Jefe espiritual de los católicos emprender tan largos viajes. En el primero de sus viajes el Papa logró ampliamente los tres objetivos que lo llevaron a los Santos lugares: Promover la unidad cristiana, alentar la causa de la paz mundial y mostrar la Iglesia al mundo.

En Bombay, Paulo VI fue objeto del más grande recibimiento en la historia de esa milenaria ciudad. Allí se presentó ante la multitud que lo aclamaba, como un peregrino de la paz, la alegría, la serenidad y el amor, hablando de la hermandad de todos los hombres bajo la paternidad divina de Dios.

Encíclica y Concilio

En el mes de agosto el Papa Paulo VI dio a la publicidad su primera encíclica, en que propugnó una mayor armonía con los no cristianos, judíos, musulmanes. Abogó por la paz mundial e hizo una enérgica condenación del comunismo, al que llamándolo por su nombre, calificó de ciego dogma que destruye la raíz de todo sistema social que trate de basarse en él, destruyendo la libertad. En esa encíclica, Paulo VI calificó al comunismo como "el problema más grave de nuestro tiempo teniendo palabras de aliento y consuelo para los pueblos que viven sometidos a ese sistema.

En Septiembre quedó abierta la tercera sesión del

Concilio Ecuménico, que tuvo dos logros relevantes: el esquema de la Iglesia en el Mundo Moderno y el esquema sobre Ecumenismo, así como el de la Colegialidad, por el cual los obispos son reconocidos como sucesores de los apóstoles, teniendo al Papa como cabeza.

El papel del seglar en la Iglesia fue también grandemente destacado en esa tercera sesión del concilio y ya comienzan a recogerse los frutos de esa mayor participación del seglar en el Apostolado de la IGLESIA.

Observarán la Fiesta de la Sagrada Familia

El Movimiento Familiar Cristiano de habla hispana observará la festividad de la Sagrada Familia en la iglesia parroquial de St. Agnes, Key Biscayne, con una misa de comunión a las 4 p.m., seguida de la ceremonia de Renovación de las Promesas del Matrimonio.

Posteriormente, en los terrenos parroquiales se ofrecerá una merienda familiar, con golosinas y entretenimientos para los pequeños hijos de las familias asistentes.

El MFC, que cuenta con equipos de matrimonios que se reúnen periódicamente en distintas parroquias de la Diócesis, invita para este acto del día de la Familia Cristiana a todos los matrimonios de habla hispana radicados en Miami.

SANTA CLAUS hizo las delicias de más de doscientos pequeños que acudieron a la ya tradicional Fiesta de Navidad del Centro Hispano Católico. Infinidad de juguetes fueron distribuidos, mientras los chiquillos disfrutaron de una apetitosa merienda y un sinnúmero de entretenimientos, como piñatas, pozos de la fortuna, juegos y cantos infantiles, villancicos y representaciones navideñas. En la foto, la chiquillada da la bienvenida al legendario "Santa". En la página 16, más fotos de esta alegre fiesta infantil).

CUBA, NAVIDAD 1964

"Fueron Estas las Navidades Más Tristes de Cuba"

Por Manolo Reyes

¿Cómo fueron las Navidades en Cuba?

Esa es la pregunta que muchos se hacen en todo el Continente Americano.

Informes llegados desde la isla mártir al exilio revelan que las Navidades que acaban de pasar han sido las más tristes que ha tenido hasta ahora el pueblo de Cuba.

La religiosa conmemoración del nacimiento de Jesucristo tiene un esencial carácter familiar, y actualmente la familia cubana vive separada, ya sea por un ignominioso paredón, por una cárcel política, por el mar o porque algunos de sus componentes se pusieron el uniforme castrista y hoy no saben como quitárselo.

Por otra parte, la niñez que crece en la isla, está siendo intensamente adocri-nada en el comunismo ateo y alejada por consecuencia de toda idea religiosa. Al no haber visto aún la luz de la verdad, la Navidad no existe para ellos.

Los informes recién llegados califican la situación que se está viviendo en estos momentos en Cuba como de horrosa, bajo un terror sin límites y con una tremenda escasez de artículos y alimentos de primera necesidad.

En esta Navidad por primera vez el pueblo de Cuba no tuvo pollo, guanajo o guineo que asar para la tradicional cena de Nochebuena. En diciembre de 1963 sólo pudieron disponer de unos llamados "pollos congelados" que se decía venían de Bulgaria y muchos de ellos se reportaron en mal estado. Pero este año, dicen los informes, "ni eso".

Como sucedió el año pasado el tradicional lechón asado tampoco apareció en la mesa de los hogares cubanos. debido a que el régimen comunista prohibió la matanza de cerdos, dada su gran escasez.

El día de Nochebuena, continuaban diciendo los informes recién llegados al exilio, se vió matizado una vez más, por largas líneas de cubanos que sólo obtuvieron alguna pequeña ración de turrón español.

Sin embargo, siguen manifestando los informes, los jercarcas del régimen ni sufrieron los rigores de una línea para conseguir algún alimento o las privaciones de un racionamiento, pues las mejores comidas y vinos se las reservaron para ellos y los llamados "técnicos" de los países comunistas que están en Cuba.

Referente a los juguetes también la compra de los mismos estuvo racionada a un solo juguete por familia. Dicen los informes que dichos juguetes de ínfimo valor, fueron vendidos a un precio altísimo.

Las fuentes informantes revelaron que en la isla de Cuba se pusieron muy pocos arbolitos de Navidad, demos-trándose así la tristeza del pueblo.

Las principales ciudades cubanas, especialmente la capital, La Habana, lucieron mortecina, oscuras y sumamente tristes.

A las nueve de la noche del día de Navidad, las calles de Cuba estaban prácticamente desiertas.

Muchos asistieron a los servicios religiosos que el régimen comunista sólo permite dentro del recinto de aquellos templos que aun permanecen abiertos, sin que se pueda hacer proselitismo o labor apostólica externa.

Desde el exilio, diferentes emisoras transmitieron la Misa de Mediachoche del día de Navidad, la llamada Misa de Gallo, y miles de cubanos en la isla mártir, con aparatos de radio sintonizados muy debilmente, escucharon en sus hogares la celebración del Santo Sacrificio.

El resumen de los informes llegados al exilio está contenido en una dramática frase: "Por mucho que se diga, ustedes no pueden imaginarse lo que es esto".

Estas fueron las Navidades en Cuba, bajo un régimen comunista, en 1964.

El Paraíso y un Año Más

Por el Fr. Mauricio de Begoña

La ficción poética de Katherine Burton nos ha ofrecido de nuestro primer padre Adán, al salir expulsado del paraíso terrenal, una imagen desacostumbrada. De ordinario, pintores, literatos y teólogos nos describen un Adán cabizbajo, roto y abatido en su caminar hacia la nueva vida no paradisiaca que le espera. El patetismo de la situación de Adán en tales circunstancias se aumenta con la desolación salvajemente bella de su mujer, nuestra primera madre Eva. Eva y Adán salen tristes del paraíso. No era para menos. Empezaban un nuevo año, una nueva etapa en su vivir, sin término definitivo, a través del tiempo hacia la eternidad.

Pero he aquí, según la poetisa, Adán no se encuentra desalentado al perder el Edén y avanzar hacia una tierra desolada. A pesar de haber sido expulsado del paraíso en un brillante día, va con la cabeza alta, casi alardeando de dejar atrás el jardín divino y como gloriándose de ser ya un desterrado, un exiliado; y hasta mira con cierta sonrisa de desdén al Arcángel justiciero que le amenaza.

Sin embargo, sintió vagamente que algo le empezaba a faltar; algo que le quitaba la paz; algo que le tiraba, como por divina querencia, hacia el sitio que abandonaba, hacia su destino perturbado. Algo se había agrietado en las murallas del paraíso y de su corazón. Lo adivinaba en los ojos de Eva. El paraíso, a su vez, ya no era el mismo. Los animales y la maleza irrumpían sin armonía por todas partes; mientras que todo estaba en orden cuando él moraba allí. Y pensaba:

"¡Si pudiera echar de esa puerta al ángel de la espada de fuego! ¡Si pudiera retroceder y hablar unas palabras con el señor, le exponería cómo algunas pequeñas cosas no andaban bien y que yo sólo he percibido y de las cuales creo que ni siquiera Eva se ha dado cuenta!"

Empezar un año más es adentrarnos en nuevo paisaje de nuestra vida. Más que deprimidos con el paso del tiempo y con la nostalgia de los paraísos perdidos o alejados, debemos ser nuevos y más hombres, nuevas y más mujeres, quienes, sabedores de su gloria redimida y recuperada por Dios bondadoso, avanzamos contemplando nuevas e inmediatas perspectivas de trabajo, de esperanza, de triunfo, de afecto y de amistad.

Epifanía: Llamamiento y Manifestación

Por Fr. Angel Villaronga

Noche de Reyes: noche misteriosa, fascinante y esperada en países de tradición católica.

Noche que es póstica para una de las festividades más hermosas y aleccionadoras del Año cristiano: la Epifanía.

Es la festividad de la manifestación pública del Niño Dios y del llamamiento de todos los pueblos a participar por la fe, del regalo que el Padre eterno hizo al mundo: su Hijo Unigénito.

Si la Navidad no es solamente un hecho histórico que se conmemora, sino que, por el milagro de la Liturgia, se reproduce y se representa, la Epifanía puede también reproducirse y revivirse en cada alma y en cada pueblo.

Una estrella nos lleva al encuentro con Dios, como a aquellos sabios del Oriente: es la estrella de la vocación cristiana, de la fe católica, recibida quizás sin gran esfuerzo nuestro, pero exigente de todo nuestro esfuerzo para cumplir el programa cristiano hasta sus últimas consecuencias.

Y Dios se nos manifiesta constantemente: cada acontecimiento de la vida, luminoso o tenebroso, cada oportunidad de hacer el bien o evitar el mal que se nos presenta, es una manifestación de Dios. Y es como si Dios se nos fuera manifestando más y más, explicándose más y mejor, en esas mil cosas de cada día y de cada vida, que pueden pasar desapercibidas, pero que con un mínimo de sensibilidad espiritual, se convierten en huellas y vestigios de Dios.

La estrella de los Magos es una invitación para los pueblos del siglo veinte. A nuestros pueblos se les manifiesta Dios como en la primera Epifanía. ¿No es una manifestación de Cristo este Concilio Ecuménico centrado todo él en la figura de Cristo y que abre los brazos y las puertas para una unidad total de las creencias cristianas?

¿No es otra estrella de una nueva Epifanía este viaje sin precedentes del Papa Paulo VI a la India, a donde llegó como un peregrino de la paz, la alegría, la serenidad y el amor? El Papa habló en aquella ocasión de la hermandad de todos los hombres, bajo la paternidad de Dios Nuestro Señor.

En su último mensaje de Navidad, Paulo VI volvió a insistir en la fraternidad de todos los hombres, obstaculizada ahora más que nunca por el nacionalismo, el racismo y el militarismo.

Sus palabras son estrella de luz que han de llevar a los pueblos todos, si estos siguen a la estrella como los magos, hasta donde está el Rey de la paz.

Conocemos parte de los bienes que los magos ofrecieron al Niño en Belén: oro, incienso y mirra. Pero ignoramos toda la riqueza espiritual que ellos se llevaron consigo cuando Cristo se les manifestó en la primera Epifanía: ciertamente, al menos, ellos aprendieron lo mismo que la Epifanía enseña al hombre de hoy, lo que el Concilio Ecuménico repite, lo que Paulo VI seguirá proclamando en sus sorprendentes peregrinaciones: que Cristo nació en este mundo para salvar a todos los hombres, hijos del mismo Padre Celestial.

NUEVOS HORIZONTES

"Año Nuevo, Vida Nueva..."

Por Manolo Reyes

Hay un viejo proverbio que dice: "Año Nuevo... Vida Nueva".

En esta sentencia viene conferida la idea de un cambio, de nuevos propósitos, de la intención de seguir caminos diferentes que auguran días de bienestar y progreso.

"Año Nuevo... Vida Nueva" significa hacer un examen de conciencia y poner en juego la mayor fuerza de voluntad.

Hoy, primer día del año 1965, es una fecha ideal para hacer el recuento no sólo de los 366 días transcurridos hasta ahora, sino un amplio examen de nuestra vida pasada, y aplicar los remedios que sinceramente nos dicta la voz de la conciencia.

Reza: Señor, dame lo que tengas en tu mano, aunque sea una llaga.

No protestes de las exigencias de tu Huésped.

Una garantía de amor de Dios: aliviar las cruces de los demás.

¿Qué contestaría el espíritu si le preguntáramos: ¿Corren parejas la edad física de nuestro cuerpo con la edad religiosa que debiéramos tener? O acaso a la madurez de un cuerpo humano sólo podemos mostrar la enseñanza religiosa adquirida en los primeros años de vida... y allí quedó ésta anquilosada?

¿Cuántas veces has tratado de conocer las etapas maravillosas de la vida de Jesucristo? ¿Cuándo fue la última vez que entraste en una Iglesia? Ahora que la Liturgia ha sido modificada y puesta en forma de que tú participes más activamente, lo haces? ¿Te acercas a menudo a la Sagrada Comunión para que Cristo reine en tu alma y en tu vida, como sabes que El quiere hacerlo?

Y de tu patria, ¿qué? ¿Le has dedicado todos los minutos que has debido? ¿Has cooperado para que ella se engrandezca o no has reparado los esfuerzos para que termine los sufrimientos que la aquejan?

En tu vida cotidiana ¿has cumplido con tus responsabilidades como hijo, esposo o padre? ¿Has servido a tu prójimo como a ti mismo? ¿Cuántos nuevos verdaderos amigos has hecho?

Contestando estas preguntas, en el mudo diálogo de la meditación, se pueden encontrar nuevos derroteros que con fuerza de voluntad para poder cumplirlos podrán hacer del Año Nuevo... Vida Nueva.

1965: Resplandor o Tinieblas

Por Enrique Ruiloba

Ya está aquí otro año de nuestras vidas. Parece que fue tan sólo ayer cuando el pasado 1964 se asomó con sus interrogantes al panorama de cada uno. Y ya pasó, ya se fue. Todo un ciclo concluido dejando rastros de alegrías y tristezas, que sólo permanecerán como aleccionador recuerdo de acción de gracias, o constante reproche de actitudes cobardes.

Esta es la época de los propósitos. Siempre se planean con gran entusiasmo, y las más de las veces con sincero deseo de superación o rectificación. Pero también lo frecuente es que se convierta en una disposición de ánimo pasajera, que apenas se proyecta como una ligera cumbre, en el horizonte bastante estéril de nuestra conducta. Así pasa enero tras enero y nos vamos poniendo viejos. Las oportunidades se van perdiendo. Y el mundo sigue en su camino hacia una desintegración creciente de los principios espirituales, morales y de libertad de los hombres.

Afortunadamente para algunos hombres a lo largo y

ancho de la tierra, no tantos como para estar satisfechos, pero suficientes para arrastrar a otros hacia el Camino, el año nuevo es un despertar, y no transitorio, sino permanente.

Esos hombres que así despiertan no permanecen inmóviles, sino que al enfrentarse cara a cara a la responsabilidad del momento no se arredran por las dificultades, sino que animosamente se lanzan adelante, y a golpe de espada van abriendo un surco a los ideales cristianos de Dios, Patria y Familia con un vigor que asustará a los timoratos, pero que no se detendrá hasta llegar a la victoria. Es que la trascendencia es grande y no es juicioso sino absurdo, el esperar "que los otros hagan", porque eso se convertiría en eco que iría rebotando de peña en peña, por los corazones endurecidos, egoístas e indiferentes.

¡Hay que hacer! Dejarnos de utopías o de teorías pseudoconsoladoras que no logran más que hacer perder el tiempo y dejarnos el bien ganado galardón de inconscientes.

Ya está aquí 1965. Del despertar individual y del impulso colectivo en Cristo y hacia Cristo, en el cielo y aquí en esta tierra, con la sociedad, las desigualdades, los problemas, la corrupción de metas y ambientes, dependerá la clave de la renovación que se va imponiendo cada vez con más violencia, como la solución necesaria al mundo de hoy.

¡Renovación cristiana! Que no sean dos palabras huecas, sino la energía poderosa que comenzando en la buena voluntad del individuo, lo centre en Dios. Hecho esto, que continúe por la familia, célula fundamental de la sociedad, y la renueve, convirtiendo el hogar en santuario de amor, ejemplo y respeto. Finalmente al tener el "frente interno" en orden y paz, lanzarse a la conquista del "frente externo", de la patria, y hacerla cristiana, digna, soberana y libre.

Pero esto no ha de ser por etapas de años, ya que estamos atrasados. No podemos contar con el lujo de un descanso; tiene que hacerse con rapidez. No hay que aguardar a largas preparaciones o situaciones favorables. Hay que salir al encuentro de las circunstancias. Hay que crear las oportunidades. El hombre tiene que ser dignificado, la familia santificada, y la patria liberada.

De nosotros depende el hacer de estos 365 días, altar de resplandores nuevos o antro de tinieblas. Ahí está la encrucijada. Luz o sombras. Unámonos, pues, como Cristo y el Padre se hicieron uno. Unámonos en la familia, para que la dicha de Nazareth descienda sobre nosotros. Unámonos los hermanos para reconquistar la patria perdida, que clama, sufre, agoniza y aguarda las llamas de la Luz que debemos ser cada uno.

La consagración al deber cristiano de conquista se impone. La serenidad en la lucha que se avecina por la patria esclavizada, se haga santa. La posición de guerrero que hay que adoptar sea purificada de personalismo y de ambiciones rastreras. La disposición al martirio mantenga en el corazón lo elevado de los propósitos. Los proyectos de una sociedad transformada por hombres nuevos, para felicidad de todos, estén impregnados de caridad y justicia. Y en todo caso nos impulse con ardor, el sello en el alma de la presencia de Dios, la confianza en su ayuda, la asistencia de la Virgen María y la identificación con la Verdad.

¿Nueva Doctrina Sobre la Virgen?

Como se habla y se escribe tanto con poca autoridad sobre la materia, desearía puntualizar si en esta última sesión del Concilio, se debatió alguna doctrina nueva sobre la Virgen María.

El papel de Nuestra Santísima Madre en la Iglesia fue debatido en la segunda sesión del Concilio Vaticano. En esa sesión, los padres del Concilio discutieron la cuestión de si tratar la doctrina católica sobre María como un documento independiente, o considerarlo parte del esquema de la Iglesia. De esta forma surgieron dos puntos de vista sobre el asunto.

EXTRAÑO PERO CIERTO

Ennegrecida por el humo de las velas a través de siglos, la Madonna de Einsiedeln es el más importante santuario mariano de Suiza.

San Ireneo, que murió el año 203, fue el primer gran escritor teológico de Occidente. Combatió exitosamente los males del agnosticismo.

La Iglesia de las Beatitudes se levanta en la ladera de la montaña en que Nuestro Señor pronunció el Sermón de la Montaña. El Mar de Galilea está al fondo.

Este reloj del Siglo XIV en la Catedral de Wells, Inglaterra, es una máquina de tiempo astronómica y mecánica. Marca las horas en un dial de 24 horas, los minutos, los días del mes y las fases de la luna.

Quisiera Saber...

La primera posición señalaba que el papel especial de María en la economía de la salvación, merecía un tratamiento aparte del esquema de la Iglesia, evitando así que los fieles subestimaran su situación en nuestra fe. Esta posición hacía aparentar en cierta forma a María como si estuviera por encima de la Iglesia, pero siempre subordinada y dependiente a su Divino Hijo, aunque manteniendo su presencia en la Redención de Co-redentora y Medianera de todas las gracias.

La segunda posición sostiene que si la Iglesia es considerada como "el pueblo de Dios", y María pertenece inseparablemente a él, entonces debe de ser tratada dentro del documento de la Iglesia.

Los Obispos conciliares votaron que la enseñanza mariana fuera un capítulo del esquema de la Iglesia. Al hacerlo así, no se definió ninguna doctrina nueva sobre Nuestra Señora, pero la segunda posición señalada parece representar el sentir de la mayoría de los padres del Concilio. De hecho, esto está contenido en la Constitución de la Liturgia promulgada por el propio Concilio el 4 de diciembre de 1963 cuando expresa: "En la Santísima Virgen María, en quien se une por un lazo inseparable en la obra salvadora de su Hijo, la Iglesia la admira y la exalta como al más excelente fruto de la Redención, y la contempla con alegría como ella desea, en su imagen Inmaculada".

Puntos Para Meditar

Si quieres ser bueno, antes has de creer que no lo eres.

Dabas los primeros pasos. Cae. Si no te hubieras levantado, hoy no sabrías caminar.

El celibato sacerdotal es un sacrificio voluntario por ti.

Puedes equivocarte. ¿Y qué? ¿Por eso vas a dejar de actuar?

HABLANDO A LA JUVENTUD

"No Dejes Para Mañana..."

Cada minuto del día tiene un valor muy especial para los niños y jóvenes que están preparándose en todos los aspectos de la vida para ser hombres y mujeres de provecho en el futuro.

Y esa utilidad debe reflejarse en el sentido religioso con todo el énfasis posible. La juventud debe acercarse lo más posible a Dios y unirse a Él con todo el amor de que son capaces sus nacientes sentimientos.

En el orden educativo, deben tratar de estudiar a profundidad todas las asignaturas y tareas, y lograr aprender cada día más. También debe reflejarse en el sentido deportivo porque la juventud necesita que sus músculos se desarrollen apropiadamente dentro de un cuerpo sano.

Y si se estudia y se practica deportes, también los jóvenes deben tener momentos de esparcimiento, de sana diversión para recrear la mente y el espíritu, ya que cuando se colocan frente a frente a la vida, tendrán momentos indescriptibles de dolor, angustia y sufrimiento. Los tiempos que viven ahora serán como un bálsamo para los años venideros. Su recuerdo servirá para restañar heridas espirituales y endulzar graves momentos de amargura.

Pero siempre recuerden que por sobre todas sus obligaciones y responsabilidades, está el tiempo que deben dedicar a Dios, y a quienes Él quiso que fueran sus padres, así como sus maestros.

Por eso, los minutos de los días que viven ahora que tienen pocos años son de tan gran importancia, pero recuerden que tienen también un gran enemigo, y ese enemigo se proyecta ante sus ojos cuando ustedes dicen "mañana". En cada momento hay que hacer lo que cada momento exige de acuerdo con sus conciencias, siempre de acuerdo con las leyes de Dios... y el deseo de sus padres y maestros.

Ahora bien, a veces la indolencia, la apatía, quizás el cansancio, mueve a la juventud a dejar para mañana ciertas cosas que hoy debieran ser hechas. Y cuantas veces al llegar mañana se dice "pasado mañana" y así sucesivamente, hasta que la tarea se deja sin hacer porque el mañana de actuación jamás llega.

Si quieren ser organizados en la vida, si desean hacer las cosas bien y no con premura para que luego salgan mal, si aspiran a triunfar en el futuro: "no dejen para mañana lo que pueden hacer hoy".

y el sometimiento a Moscú, otras zonas del continente continuaron en la marcha hacia la estabilidad democrática y el afianzamiento económico, despertando ante las amenazas provenientes de la Isla del Caribe, empeñada en extender sus tentáculos hacia otros territorios, donde ha venido siendo rechazada por las grandes mayorías populares, que se aferran a la búsqueda de mejores perspectivas en lo político, lo económico y lo social, pero firmes en su adhesión a los principios cristianos, fuertemente cimentados desde los tiempos del descubrimiento.

ACTIVIDAD LOCAL

En lo local, la Diócesis de Miami, proyectándose más allá de sus límites, propuso en la voz de su Obispo, Mons. Coleman F. Carroll, la creación de un Instituto Interamericano de Formación Social, que ya ha cubierto dos cursos con cerca de un centenar de becados procedentes de República Dominicana y Puerto Rico, y que planea continuar en el próximo año impartiendo su formación a hombres procedentes de otros países latinoamericanos, en el afán de capacitarlos como líderes perfectamente conocedores de la doctrina social de la Iglesia y de las técnicas necesarias para difundir y aplicar esa doctrina en sus ambientes.

Otros aspectos de la actividad diocesana entre la colonia de habla hispana durante el año lo constituyeron el auge creciente del movimiento de Cursillos de Cristiandad, así como de otras obras apostólicas, tales como el Movimiento Familiar Cristiano, la Legión de María, el Instituto de Acción Social y sus cursos parroquiales, que están llevando la doctrina social cristiana a todos los niveles de la población de habla hispana.

El Centro Hispano Católico siguió siendo lugar de asistencia para miles de latinoamericanos que han acudido a él en busca de Médicos y medicina, empleos, ropa, alimentos o dirección espiritual. Precisamente en este año comenzó a funcionar un Comité de Mujeres Auxiliares del Centro, que está siendo ya de gran ayuda en todas las tareas asistenciales de ese organismo diocesano y que tiende a promover un mayor acercamiento entre los latinoamericanos de Miami con las organizaciones diocesanas.

MENSAJE DE NAVIDAD DE PAULO VI

Un Llamado a la Fraternidad Entre los Hombres

CIUDAD DEL VATICANO (NA) — En su mensaje de Navidad, el Papa Paulo VI hizo un llamado a las potencias mundiales para que terminen la carrera armamentista en su afán de mantener la paz en base al temor mutuo y que en cambio dediquen sus esfuerzos a resolver los problemas del hambre, la miseria, las enfermedades y la ignorancia.

El Sumo Pontífice habló energicamente contra el nacionalismo, el racismo y el militarismo. Señaló que la humanidad no ha aprendido las lecciones de dos guerras mundiales motivadas por el nacionalismo.

Manifestó el Santo Padre que hay muchos obstáculos que obstruyen "el camino hacia la hermandad humana" y que en estos momentos atravesamos un período en el que se hacen más evidentes y a veces peligrosamente efectivos.

"No podemos evitar sentirnos alarmados ante un militarismo ya no concentrado en la legítima defensa de los países o en el mantenimiento de la paz, sino que tiende más bien a robustecer las existencias de armas cada vez más poderosas y destructivas". Luego agregó que este es "un proceso que consume grandes cantidades de dinero y energía humana, satura la mente humana con el pensamiento del poderío y la guerra, e induce a los hombres a hacer del temor mutuo la base traicionera e inhumana de la paz mundial".

El Santo Padre pidió a todos los "gobernantes del mundo", hallar la fórmula para lograr el proceso de desarme. "Nos agradecería ver una investigación de generosa inspiración sobre la forma en que los gastos militares pueden dedicarse a fines humanitarios, y esto no sólo en beneficio de los países interesados, sino también de otros en proceso de desarrollo o en situación de necesidad. El hambre y la miseria, la enfermedad y la ignorancia aún claman por su alivio".

Refiriéndose al nacionalismo dijo que "este enemigo de la hermandad humana cobra hoy fuerzas... hacemos un llamamiento a los gobiernos y pueblos para que se mantengan alertas y moderen este instinto del prestigio y la rivalidad. Pues podría una vez más resultar fatal".

Recordando su viaje a la India, el Papa Paulo comentó que su viaje demostró "que todos los hombres son hermanos" y que "los contactos entre ellos son tantos y tan convenientes que deberían conducir al amor. La idea de la vecindad abraza toda la humanidad. Cada hombre es nuestro vecino... por consiguiente, las barreras levantadas por el espíritu de egoísmo deben ser derribadas; la promoción de los legítimos intereses privados jamás debe perjudicar a otros o ser contraria al bienestar público".

En alusión evidente a la "Iglesia del Silencio", tras la Cortina de Hierro, el Papa dijo que enviaba sus saludos especiales "a aquellos que debido a tristes restricciones no pueden incorporar signos de felicidad y de serenidad a la fiesta de Navidad".

El Sumo Pontífice dijo también que "la Navidad hace que nosotros mismos experimentemos la esencia de nuestra misión universal, que es la de anunciar la buena nueva: buena nueva que descubre a los hombres la posibilidad de su felicidad, de su paz y de su salvación; y por eso nunca como en este día nos sentimos más que deseosos, obligados, a dirigir al mundo nuestro mensaje de felicitación. Este año nuestro mensaje, nuestra felicitación es de fraternidad".

"Hombres buenos y generosos, que podéis ayudar al que tiene hambre, al que sufre, al que está postrado en la miseria y en el abandono, escuchad en nuestra voz, la voz divina y humana de Cristo, nuestro hermano que habla en cada hombre indigente" terminó diciendo el Santo Padre.

Publicarán Literatura Aborigen Misioneros Capuchinos

CARACAS (NA) — El Ministerio de Educación de Venezuela publicará un muestrario de la literatura oral indígena de este país, para lo cual ha firmado un contrato con el P. Cesáreo de Armellada, misionero y lingüista capuchino. El título del volumen a publicarse es "Taurón Pantón", que corresponde a un relato de la tribu pemón (familia lingüística caribe), que habita en la región de la Gran Sabana, en la frontera con Brasil y la Guayana Inglesa. De acuerdo al convenio firmado por el P. de Armellada, las producciones literarias indígenas serán incluidas en la "Biblioteca Popular" del Ministerio de Educación, que comprende obras de los escritores más representativos de Venezuela.

INDIA: POPE PAUL WEEPS

ONE SMALL BOY IN INDIA, HIS LIMBS SWOLLEN WITH DISEASE, WILL NEVER FORGET the Holy Father's pilgrimage.

The Holy Father's Mission Aid for the Oriental Church

The Holy Father looked at him a long moment, his eyes welling with tears, and he blessed him. "I love you," the Pope whispered. After breakfast with 216 orphans the Holy Father was told by 13-year-old Tony Mascarenas: "Many of us have no fathers. Many of us have no mothers. Some, like me, have no one in the world." Thanking the Pope for his visit, the lad apologized: "We cannot give you anything, because we have nothing." . . . Do you wonder the Holy Father weeps? He asks for a great world fund for orphans, deformed infants, feeble old men, lepers, blind boys, refugees . . . Three-fourths of the world is plagued by hunger. What we pay for one package of cigarettes (33c) is a week's wage in Kerala State, south India! What the average American family spends for soft drinks each month ($20) will feed two families of refugees for a month! In India, our native priests and Sisters must have hammers, saws, books, and cloth, to teach poor youngsters how to support themselves . . . Will you help Father Mannan in Neeloor, for instance? $2800 will make room for hundreds more boys and girls in the little school he conducts—and $950 provides a chapel. Name the school and the chapel for your favorite saint, in memory of your loved ones. Any gift ($25, $20, $15, $10, $5, $2) will be a Godsend in the war on suffering. With the Pope it will say, "I love you."

SIX NEW IDEAS FOR '65

WHAT BECOMES OF THE FUN AND FROLIC New Year's eve? What you spend is gone the morning after . . . Month by month in 1965, here's what you can do:

- TRAIN A NATIVE SISTER OVERSEAS. She'll be your personal representative to people who need help, and she'll write to you. Her training costs only $12.50 a month, $150 a year, $300 altogether.
- TRAIN A NATIVE PRIEST. He wants to give his life for others. For the next six years he needs $8.50 a month ($100 a year, $600 altogether). Write to us.
- FEED A FAMILY OF REFUGEES. $10 feeds a family for a month!
- ENROLL YOURSELF in one or more $1-a-month clubs: DAMIEN CLUB (helps lepers, BASILIANs (teaches children), HOUSE OF GOLD (cares for the aging), MONICA GUILD (repairs missions churches).
- ENROLL A FRIEND a month, newborn infants, students, the ill, in this Association. The offering is only $1 for a year, $20 for life. The spiritual benefits are rewarding!
- STRINGLESS: Send A GIFT each month to the Holy Father. He will use it where needed most.

The Question Box

Does Church Ever Change: What About Now?

By MSGR. J. D. CONWAY

Q. When I went to school I was taught that the Church never changes.

Now all the changes of Mass, Communion, Confession, etc., are causing a lot of controversy among the Catholic people.

Why were not the Mass changes left to a vote of the Catholic people who must either abide by the changes (like them or not) or say, "Oh, the dickens with it all."

A. This good lady has many more complaints. I may list some of them later for the consolation of those who find present changes difficult.

As for that falsehood taught you in school — that the Church never changes — I hope that manner of teaching has changed. The essence of the Church never changes: It remains always and everywhere the Mystical Body of Christ, the People of God gathered into the sanctifying embrace of the Savior, and given life and inspiration by the Holy Spirit.

The Mass is always the same Sacrifice of Calvary and the same Eucharistic supper in which Christ joins his brethren in love. But even the most casual knowledge of history shows that the Church has changed frequently and notably in most of its human features.

I wish some of the millions who like the new changes would write to me. If not I shall have to quote some of my own parishioners.

Q. I have been confined in a mental hospital. While there I received Communion, although I did not go to confession the second time. Is this considered a true COMMUNION?

A. Of course it is not necessary to go to confession before each Communion you receive. As long as you remain in the state of grace you may receive Communion dozens of times without going to confession. You should make your next confession in the usual manner — unless you think there was some serious sin you committed before your second Communion. If so you explain that to the confessor.

Q. I picked up a novena booklet on the life of St. Rita of Cascia, Advocate of the Impossible. After reading her life story I started to pray to her. In the meantime, however, it came to my attention from a nun that when St. Rita answers a prayer she demands in some way or other a payment.

A. Would you bargain with the Lord? You might read Genesis 18, 22-32; there Abraham gives you good example of how to go about it. But if you read further you will find that it didn't work.

Do you fear the love of our Savior? Do you doubt the generosity of Him who gave His life for you? St. Rita is powerless except through Him.

Q. When we read our Bible we become a bit puzzled over the sacrifices of Cain and Abel. Why was Abel's acceptable and Cain's was not?

A. And I am puzzled too. Possibly the simplest and most authoritative explanation is that given by St. John, that Cain killed Abel "because his own works were wicked and his brother's just." (I John 3:12). This would imply that Cain was guilty of sin before he offered his sacrifice. We have a slightly different explanation in Hebrews 11, 4: "By faith Abel offered to God a sacrifice more excellent than did Cain."

The writer of Genesis is not concerned with explanations. Adam's sin had separated man from God. Now comes the result: Man is turned against man, and there is punishment for man's crime against his brother.

Guild To Study Priest's Works

A study and discussion group to consider the writings of the late Father Teilhard de Chardin, S.J. will be inaugurated by the Catholic Teachers Guild at 8 p.m., Thursday, Jan. 7 in Thompson Hall on the Barry College campus.

Father Chardin's major writings, "The Phenomenon of Man," "The Divine Milieu," and "The Future of Man," have been the subject of widespread interest during recent years. Anyone interested in an informal study of the Jesuit priest's writing is welcome to attend the discussions which will be held bi-weekly.

The Guild recently held a general membership meeting and luncheon in Fort Lauderdale where the principal speaker was Msgr. James J. Walsh, Miami Diocesan Director of Vocations, and special correspondent of The Voice at sessions of Vatican Council II.

Gift To Orphans

SAIGON (NC) — Six hundred orphans waving Vietnamese and American flags welcomed U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor when he brought a Christmas gift of $1,000 here from Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York.

The ambassador drove to Go Vap orphanage, conducted by Vietnamese Sisters, Lovers of the Cross, to present the cardinal's gift in person.

POPE PIUS VII IN A MESSAGE TO FATHER EMERY, THE SUPERIOR-GENERAL OF THE Sulpicians said: "MY SON, LET THAT SEMINARY STAND; IT WILL BEAR FRUIT IN ITS OWN TIME!"

AND IT DID, AS THE GLORIOUS HISTORY OF ST. MARY'S SEMINARY AMPLY TESTIFIES! FROM 1850 TO THE OUTBREAK OF THE CIVIL WAR 112 PRIESTS WERE FURNISHED FOR TWENTY-SIX DIOCESES.

SHARING OUR TREASURE

Beginning Of His Conversion Was A Cheerful Greeting

By Father JOHN A. O'BRIEN

Friendliness, kindness and good example help mightily in kindling interest in the Catholic religion. A pleasant smile and a cheerful greeting warm the heart.

O'BRIEN

An act of kindness deepens the impact and good example is frequently the clincher. People become interested in learning about a religion which inspires such conduct in its members. Once a person becomes genuinely interested in the faith, he is usually well on his way to the Church's open door.

This is illustrated in the conversion of Henry Grider Evans of Duluth, Minn. The story of his conversion was related to me by his son, Father John Whitey Evans of the Duluth diocese.

"My father," he said, "was the last of 11 children. He grew up in the South and was not formally a member of any Church. After some years in government service in Washington, he became a salesman of refrigerators.

"Calling at a rectory, he received a friendly welcome from the pastor who invited him in for some refreshment. The priest's friendliness and hospitality warmed father's heart, and he often referred to the incident. When he married my mother, he was quite willing to do everything the Church requested. He used to say that, although he had no religion, he would not ridicule or criticize the faith of others.

"He was, of course, deeply impressed by the good example my mother gave him. She not only said her morning and evening prayers but often managed to attend daily Mass. When she lost her parents only a few years apart, father was edified by the way she stood up under the loss.

"Some of her deep faith was apparently beginning to rub off on him, for it was about this time that he applied for instructions to our pastor, Father Cashen, at Rosary parish, Duluth. Father perceived that the Church was not man-made but God-made.

"He admired the marvelous unity of the Church, which was safeguarded by the authority bestowed upon it to preach and teach in the name of Christ. The sacraments, especially the Holy Eucharist — God's greatest gift to man — made a deep appeal to him. Finally, after a year of instruction and 17 years of marriage, father was received into the Church.

"When I decided to enter the seminary, he was tremendously happy, even though I was the only child. While I was in the seminary, father made a daily visit to the Blessed Sacrament. The day of my first Mass was probably the happiest of his life. The little talk he gave at the breakfast following touched the hearts of all and brought tears of joy to many eyes.

"Stricken with cancer, father was the first person to whom I brought Holy Communion and the first whom I anointed. He bore his suffering with resignation and without a murmur. "This will end," he remarked, "but heaven will last forever." His deep supernatural faith, his sense of values and his unfaltering love of God edified me immensely and have remained as an inspiring and abiding memory. My humble prayer is that I may prove worth of such a father."

Her Husband Mean Since Becoming A Teetotaler

THE FAMILY CLINIC

I was married in the church, then divorced my husband because he drank. I remarried and my second husband adopted my two children. Since then we've had another and he has been a good man but he too drank. Three months ago, when my first husband died, we were married in the Church. My husband quit drinking but he has become very mean. He had a nervous breakdown three years ago and hasn't recovered. I've had two but am better. My husband reads your column, and maybe you can help him.

By JOHN J. KANE, Ph.D. L.

The problem you present, Margaret, is a sad mixture of emotional illness and a suspicious husband. It has, however, an odd twist. Since your husband stopped drinking, he is, you say, very mean. But the sentence that stops me is, "I've had two (breakdowns) but am better."

The term "nervous breakdown" is a polite expression for any kind of mental or emotional upset from a psychosis, which is a severe mental illness, to a mild emotional disturbance. For this reason, it is impossible to decide whether both you and your husband have been quite emotionally ill at one time, or merely mildly so.

On the basis of your letter it would appear that both of you are now rather emotionally disturbed. I hope this statement will not alarm you. I am not a psychiatrist and even if I were, I should scarcely attempt to diagnose on the contents of one letter.

But you have presented so many problems in a brief letter: you refer to breakdowns in the past and your husband's meanness and suspicion that it arouses this suspicion in me. Furthermore, despite what you say, are you certain you are entirely better?

Basically it seems to me that you and your husband have a medical problem which should be discussed thoroughly with your physician. This is the point of departure which I most strongly urge upon both of you.

There really is nothing disgraceful about emotional illness. About ten per cent of the American people, it is estimated, will spend some time in a mental hospital as patients. The extent of mental problems, however, is far greater than this.

I doubt your husband's reputed meanness is the result of his not drinking. Rather, it may be that alcohol was a crutch which enabled him to cover up his meanness which has somewhat deeper roots.

While you did not give me the age of your husband or yourself, I guess both of you are in or near your fifties.

This period of life can be difficult for both men and women. It is a transitional phase of life. Some people pass through it with little or no trouble. Others suffer serious upsets. When both husband and wife experience such emotional upsets the problem is unduly complicated.

I cannot help but wonder what impact this may be having on your children.

Youngsters reared in unhappy homes have poor chances, usually, of making happy marriages themselves. Some do, but a large number do not. Here is another strong motive why and your husband should act now to get at the roots of problems.

You claim your husband has never recovered from his "breakdown." If this is the case, then the heavier responsibility rests with you, since you believe you are better.

Part of the marriage vows cover taking a partner in sickness and in health. Sickness is almost inevitable in life, mental illness, physical illness or even both. Therefore, you must give your husband all the love, affection and understanding that you can — even if he is somewhat unreasonable. In fact, you must be prepared to do these things even to a greater extent when the other party is ill.

To summarize my recommendations to you then, first, both of you should discuss this matter honestly and thoroughly with your physician. He can decide to what extent it is a physiological or psychological problem or a combination of both.

Furthermore, please try to act at once. The situation as you presently describe it is really most precarious. Without help it may degenerate into even worse possibilities.

Resolve To Use 'The Garnish Spice'

By FLORENCE DEVANEY

January 1st is the time for making good resolutions. That's because January was named for Janus, the two-faced Roman god. He is the god of gateways and new beginnings, with one face looking back, the other forward.

One good resolution for cooks this year is to keep their creativity even though they may be using more heat-and-eat foods.

There are any number of simple little touches that will vary convenience foods and make them personally yours. A sprinkling of paprika, "the garnish spice," is one idea that can be used in various ways with many different foods.

Here are recipes for some delicious main dishes made the easy way. There's a Shrimp and Tuna Pie stirred together one-two-three-quick from canned seafood and vegetables. Paprika gives rosy color and sweet savor to this filling.

Paprika Veal is another modern recipe in which flavor and appetite appeal generally haven't been sacrificed to speed. It takes about 40 minutes altogether but only a few minutes of the cook's attention.

And then there's Broccoli Divan, Tuna and Noodle Casserole or a Salmon Chowder. All are quick and easy, flavorful and attractive. In each one of these dishes paprika adds the Paprika is so generally useful pers are grown in the United in modern cookery that we States, and imported from 15 need more than 12 million other countries.

Paprika Veal

- | | |
|--------------------------------|--|
| 2 lbs. boneless veal stew meat | 1 cup water |
| ¼ cup flour | 1 can (10½ oz.) cream of mushroom soup |
| 1½ teaspoons salt | 1 tablespoon paprika |
| ½ teaspoon ground black pepper | Dash cayenne |
| ¼ cup cooking oil | ½ cup sour cream |
| | Cooked rice |

Cut veal into 1-inch cubes. Combine flour, salt and black pepper. Add veal and mix until coated with seasoned flour. Brown on all sides in oil in a 2½-quart heavy saucepan. Add water. Cover and cook over low heat 30 minutes or until veal is tender. Stir in soup, paprika, cayenne and sour cream. Heat only until hot. Serve over rice.

YIELD: 6 servings.

Shrimp And Tuna Pie

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 can (1 lb 1 oz. peas and carrots, drained) | 2 teaspoons paprika |
| 1 can (10½ oz.) cream of mushroom soup | ½ teaspoon fresh lemon juice |
| 1 can (7 oz.) tuna fish | 1 package (10 ounces) instant pastry mix |
| 1 can (4½ oz.) shrimp | |

Combine all ingredients except pastry mix. Set aside. Make pastry from instant pastry mix according to directions on the package. Line a 9-inch pie plate with one-half the pastry, rolled ¼-inch thick. Fill with the tunafish mixture. Top with remaining pastry. Trim, turn under and flute the edge. Cut an opening in top crust lightly with milk. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (375 F.) 50 minutes or until crust has browned. Serve hot as the main dish.

YIELD: 6 servings.

Tuna-Noodle Casserole

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 1 package (6 oz.) Noodle Dinner with Savory Mushroom Sauce | ¾ cup soft, fine bread crumbs |
| 1 can (7 oz.) tuna fish | 2 tablespoons butter, melted |
| 2 teaspoons paprika | |

Prepare noodle dinner with savory mushroom sauce as directed on the package. Flake tuna fish and add along with paprika. Mix lightly, being careful not to break up the noodles. Turn into a buttered 1-quart casserole. Mix bread crumbs with melted butter. Sprinkle over the noodles. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 F.) 30 minutes or until crumbs have browned.

YIELD: 6 servings.

Salmon Chowder

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1 can (10½ oz.) cream of potato soup | 1 can (7¼ oz.) salmon, drained |
| 1 can (10½ oz.) evaporated milk | ¼ teaspoon salt |
| | 1 teaspoon paprika |
| | 1 teaspoon lemon juice |

Turn potato soup and milk into a 1½ quart saucepan. Mix well. Stir in salmon, salt and paprika. Heat only until hot. Add lemon juice. Serve hot with crackers.

YIELD: 6 servings.

FOR COMING WEEK ON SOUTH FLORIDA STATIONS Here Are Legion Ratings Of Films On TV

FRIDAY, JANUARY 1

8:10 a.m. (12) — Thousands Cheer (Adults, Adol.)
9 a.m. (4) — Glory (Family)
12:30 p.m. (10) — Earthworm Tractors (Family)
6 p.m. (10) — My Little Chickadee (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Suggestive line and situations.
7 p.m. (7) — The Little Hut (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — A substantial part of the subject matter and the treatment of this picture is seriously offensive by reason of a light and farcical treatment of the sacrament of Matrimony plus suggestiveness in dialogue and situations. This classification is predicated on a revised version of the film.
11:25 p.m. (11) — Laughing Anne (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Tends to condone immoral actions; excessive brutality.
11:30 p.m. (12) — Inspector General (Family)
11:40 p.m. (4) — Hiawatha (Family)
1 a.m. (10) — Same as 6 p.m. Friday
1:20 a.m. (12) — Same as 8:10 a.m. Friday
3:10 a.m. (12) — The Hatchet Man (No Class.)
4:30 a.m. (12) — Same as 11:30 p.m. Friday

SATURDAY, JANUARY 2

7 a.m. (5) — Pride of the West (Family)
8 a.m. (5) — Submarine Patrol (Family)

1 p.m. (7) — Fire Monsters (Part 1) (No Class.)
2:30 p.m. (4) — The Amazing Colossal Man (Adults, Adol.)
2:30 p.m. (7) — The Spoilers (Adults, Adol.)
4 p.m. (4) — Hell and High Water (Family)
6:30 p.m. (10) — Carnival Story (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — This film, while not deemed as wholly "Condemned," contains substantially material that seriously offends Christian and traditional standards of morality and decency. "Despite earnest efforts of this office to effect an elimination of a lessening of the moral offensiveness, the producer refused cooperation and has retained in the picture various scenes of gross suggestiveness in situations, costume and dialogue."
9 p.m. (7 and 2) — The Last Hunt (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Excessive brutality; suggestive situations.
10:30 p.m. (10) — Rancho Notorious (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Tends to condone the taking of the law into one's own hands.
11 p.m. (12) — A Kiss Before Dying (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Low moral tone.
11:05 p.m. (11) — Man on the Biffl Tower (Adults, Adol.)
11:15 p.m. (4) — Malaya (Adults, Adol.)
11:20 p.m. (7) — Fire Monsters (No Class.)
12:50 a.m. (12) — A Kiss Before Dying (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Low moral tone.

WESH 2 (Daytona-Orlando)

WTVJ 4 WPTV 5 (West Palm Beach)

WCKT 7 WLBW 10 WINK 11 (Fort Myers)

WEAT 12 (West Palm Beach)

2:05 a.m. (12) — Three Men on a Horse (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Not given
3:50 a.m. (12) — Creeping Unknown (Adults, Adol.)
5:25 a.m. (12) — Blackwell's Island (Adults, Adol.)

SUNDAY, JANUARY 3

7 a.m. (12) — Listen Darling (Family)
8 a.m. (5) — Open Secret (Adults, Adol.)
11 a.m. (5) — Hudson's Bay (Adults, Adol.)
12 p.m. (4) — Stand Up and Cheer (Family)
1 p.m. (7) — The Spoilers (Adults, Adol.)
2:30 p.m. (4) — Prince Valiant (Family)
5:05 p.m. (10) — Jezebel (Adults, Adol.)
9 p.m. (10) — The Misfits (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — The low moral tone, highly suggestive costuming and degrading situations which permeate this film tend to obscure and nullify any alleged serious dramatic purpose of the picture-makers.
11 p.m. (11) — Panhandle At Gun Point (Adults, Adol.)
11:15 p.m. (5) — Americano (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Suggestive costuming, dancing, and situations.
11:15 p.m. (4) — Bedelia (Adults, Adol.)
11:20 p.m. (7) — Johnny Eager (Adults, Adol.)
11:30 p.m. (12) — A Kiss Before Dying (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Low moral tone.
2:20 a.m. (12) — Same as 7 a.m. Sunday
4:30 a.m. (12) — Menace in the Night (Family)
5:30 a.m. (12) — White Heat (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Methods of crime minutely detailed. Suggestive situations. Excessive brutality.

MONDAY, JANUARY 4

8:10 a.m. (12) — Mildred Pierce (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Suggestive sequences and dialogue; light treatment of marriage.
9 a.m. (4) — Three Secrets (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Reflects the acceptability of divorce; suggestive dialogue and situation

9:30 a.m. (10) — False Witness (No Class.)
12:30 p.m. (10) — The Magnificent Brute (Adults, Adol.)
4:30 p.m. (4) — Yellowstone Kelly (Family)
4:30 p.m. (7) — Mad at the World (No Class.)
6 p.m. (10) — Belle of the Yukon (No Class.)
7 p.m. (7) — Man From Colorado (Adults, Adol.)
11:30 p.m. (11) — Toughest Man in Arizona (No Class.)
11:30 p.m. (4) — Let's Do It Again (Morally Objectionable In Part For All) REASON — Reflects the acceptability of divorce; suggestive situations, dialogue and costuming.
1 a.m. (10) — Same as 6 p.m. Monday
1:20 a.m. (12) — Same as 8:10 a.m. Monday
3:10 a.m. (12) — Voltaire (No Class.)

'My Fair Lady' Tops 'Ten Best' Film List

By WILLIAM H. MOORING

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — In this year's selection of the "Ten Best," the piebald characteristics of 1964's movies, American and foreign, may bring to light as many variations as there are critics.

Without apology, I select my "Ten Best," with primary emphasis upon recreative entertainment, artistically evolved, so as to appeal to people whose aesthetic tastes, general intelligence and moral sensibilities set firm distinctions between motion picture realism and pornography.

In this brief preamble, I choose: "My Fair Lady", "Mary Poppins", "Becket", "The Unsinkable Molly Brown",

HOLLYWOOD IN FOCUS

"The World of Henry Orient", "The Luck of Ginger Coffee", "Topkapi", "Seance on a Wet Afternoon", "Billy Liar" and "Behold a Pale Horse".

I almost persuaded myself to disqualify "Pale Horse", together with such efforts of qualified significance as "Seven Days in May", "Dr. Strangelove" and "Fail Safe."

But its political bias — like the historical inaccuracies of "Becket" — fortunately was free of the cynicism which, for me, made these other films, with their reek of propaganda, so offensive.

Several more provocative and partially meritorious pictures, including "The Night of the Iguana", "The Pumpkin Eater", "The Servant" and "The Organizer", all of which may figure in many critics' lists, lose my bid by reason of sensational excesses incurred in the repellent treatment of various human aberrations.

This, I insist, in several instances betrayed the intentions of the "artists" responsible. Most of them revealed considerable talent, to "sell" which they were prepared to subordinate their art to salacious appeal.

FRESH HOPE

Since a great deal of what a New York daily recently referred to as a "Flood of Filth", has its source in France, Japan, Scandinavia and Italy, a clean, fresh hope for the New Year blows in from Rome.

Two or three Christian Democrat Deputies in the Italian Congress have drawn official attention to the "brazen film pornography" with which they insist "communist and pro-communist elements in Italy are attempting to corrupt and disintegrate Western and Italian society."

This, of course, includes these United States, where several motion pictures cited by these Italian deputies received high critical praise as "Art".

One or two of the same movies, after being highly acclaimed by Italian communists and pro-communist film critics (in Italy and the USA also!) have been firmly banned in Russia on grounds that they are "immoral".

So we see once again, how in communist-dominated countries, government film censorship is unbending, while here in the USA, all those who sympathize with or support atheistic Marxism lead public opposition to film censorship in any form. Need we wonder why?

VIEWS ON TELEVISION

NBC's Western, 'Bonanza', Is Rated Top TV Show

By WILLIAM H. MOORING

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — Suppose as a seasonable act of charity we agree with the TV big-shots that Nielsen can determine by the yeas or naves of a thousand, just which shows millions are tuning in or out.

Where then do we fit in? You and me.

"NBC's "Bonanza," a five-year-old Western, if you please, is right on top with 35.8, a full 6.4 ahead of ABC's new "Bewitched," in which Elizabeth Montgomery, as the typical superman, can do anything she pleases, especially with and to man!

Third runs "Gomer Pyle," the typically stupid male who keeps coming up roses. Because he's in the marines? Or because he is putty in dainty, feminine hands?

For the rest of TV's Top Ten, divide public favors between suspense melodrama (ABC's "The Fugitive"); broad comedy "Andy Griffith," "Skelton," "Lucy" and "Jackie Gleason"); the new "heebies" ("The Munsters") and "Peyton Place," number two.

Do not ask why "Peyton Place," number two, comes 10th on Nielsen's tape-measure and "Peyton Place," number one is 31st. It seems no sudsier one night than another.

WAIT

Perhaps the emotional drag does not wear down as much from Tuesday to Thursday as during the longer wait which sweet Sue must endure from Thursday back to Tuesday again.

Or maybe, all the sweet Sues who swoon, Thursdays, over "Dr. Kildare" have just time to come round with "Hazel" before scrambling from NBC over to ABC's "Peyton Place" where Dr. Rossi usually is in attendance.

Having already been "koshed," "cussed" and "clobbered" by the kindlier sex, for suggesting that "Peyton Place," as sex-slobber with its own built-in bi-carb., is not TV's greatest gift to dramatic culture, I try further to explain.

I think it is okay for people who prefer to think with their feelings. "Peyton Place" does for the dirty linen of the Grace Metalious hometown, what all good suds do for the working man's overalls.

It takes out everything that might enable them to stand up on their own two legs!

And isn't this what TV, by and large, is doing to most of us?

If you do not agree with me, try to find in the first 40 or even the first 50 shows listed by Nielsen, ANY of the programs that the average thinking man (or woman) would choose.

New Film 'Code' Asked For Minors

ALBANY, N.Y. (NC) — The New York State Board of Regents has decided to ask the Legislature for authority to classify motion pictures according to their suitability for children.

Under the terms of the bill proposed by the Regents, the motion picture division of the Department of Education would review all films submitted by movie distributors and exhibitors for classification.

The bill would authorize the board only to label films as acceptable for minors under 16 — not to say that objectionable ones were unacceptable for showing to that group.

James E. Allen Jr., Commissioner of Education, said the bill would enable the Regents to inform parents of films suitable for children. The absence of approval, he added, might serve as a warning.

The bill would also modify the rarely enforced state law that bars children under 16 from theaters unless accompanied by an adult. It would allow children between 8 and 16 to sit in special sections of theaters under the supervision of ma-

DuPONT'S NEW TEDLAR ELIMINATES PAINTING

The dream of every Home Owner to be free of constant PAINTING, and other maintenance costs, has been realized by the introduction of DuPont's amazing new "TEDLAR," now available after 20 years of testing and research. This is not a Paint, BUT A FUSED ON APPLICATION so unbelievably tough that it gives a permanent finish never dreamed of previously. It can be applied over every type of home, Frame, C.B.S., Stucco, etc. A number of Home Owners in this area will be given an opportunity of having this new product applied to the exterior of their homes on "HORSE TRADING PRICES" with a GUARANTEE by a reliable concern. Act now and receive additional special decorative work at no additional cost.
